THIS MATTER comes before the Court on Defendant’s Motion to Continue Trial Date. Dkt. #20. The trial in this matter is currently scheduled for December 10, 2018. Dkt. #11. Defendant seeks a continuance to accommodate numerous witnesses who will face financial hardship during the holiday retail season if they are required to take time off work for a trial during that timeframe. Dkts. #20 and #32. Plaintiff EEOC opposes the motion, arguing that Defendant was not diligent in making this request. Dkt. #28.

Having reviewed Defendant’s motion, the opposition thereto and reply in support thereof, along with the supporting Declarations and the remainder of the record, the Court finds and

Orders:

- 1 1. There is good cause to grant a short continuance as requested. Accordingly,
2 Defendant's motion (Dkt. #20) is GRANTED.
3 2. The Court shall re-set the trial date in this matter for Monday, January 7, 2019.
4 3. The Clerk shall issue an Amended Scheduling Order setting forth the new trial date
5 in this matter along with the amended, remaining pre-trial deadlines.
