UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

AMERICAN STATES INSURANCE COMPANY, an Indiana corporation; and
FIRST NATIONAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA, a New Hampshire corporation,

Plaintiffs,

vs.

GREAT AMERICAN INSURANCE
COMPANY, an Ohio corporation,

Defendant.

No. 2:17-cv-01200-RSL

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

NOTED ON MOTION CALENDAR

March 5, 2018

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively

1 entitle parties to file confidential information under seal. All documents and information
2 marked "Confidential" have been maintained in confidence and not disclosed to the public, 3 but rather have been kept private with disclosure only made to those directly interested, in 4 privity, or charged with the activity undertaken.

5 2. "CONFIDENTIAL" MATERIAL

6 "Confidential" material shall mean the following categories of documents and 7 tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged by the parties in this matter to the extent 8 they are designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" under Section 5.2 below:

- 9
- 10 • Underwriting files regarding policies issued to non-party Sea Shepherd and 11 containing Sea Shepherd's confidential information, containing Sea 12 Shepherd's financial information and employee information; containing the 13 parties' negotiation information; and containing insurers' trade secrets, rate 14 calculation data, loss reserve information, and information relating to the 15 Parties' business procedures, techniques and other internal practices. These 16 procedures have been developed and refined over the course of many years and 17 the Parties have consistently taken reasonable steps to protect the 18 confidentiality of the procedures and techniques. Further, the underwriting files 19 may contain information relating to other policies that are not relevant to this 20 action.
 - 21 • Claim files related to the claims against non-party Sea Shepherd and 22 containing confidential information regarding that non-party's defense of the 23 claims against it. Public disclosure of this information could potentially harm 24 Sea Shepherd in future litigation or claims and, because Sea Shepherd is not a 25 party to this litigation, it does not have the ability to protect the confidentiality 26 of this information itself. Further, documents and information protected by the attorney-client communications privilege and the work product doctrine are contained within the claim files related to the claims against non-party Sea Shepherd.
 - Communications with any reinsurer, retrocessionaire, broker or third party administrator regarding the claims against non-party Sea Shepherd, as these communications likely contain confidential information relating to the defense of Sea Shepherd, relating to loss reserves and negotiations, and relating to 1 other policies that are not relevant to this action. For those reasons, public 2 disclosure could potentially harm Sea Shepherd in future litigation or claims.

3 Again, because Sea Shepherd is not a party to this litigation, it does not have 4 the ability to protect the confidentiality of this information itself. Further, 5 documents and information protected by the attorney-client communications 6 privilege and the work product doctrine are contained within the claim files 7 related to the claims against non-party Sea Shepherd.

- 8 • Personal identification information regarding non-party Sea Shepherd 9 employees or affiliates, as disclosure to the public would invade the privacy of 10 third parties.
- 11 • Claims manuals or similar documents reflecting claims handling procedures 12 and guidelines, including any documentation regarding loss reserves related to 13 the claims against Sea Shepherd or in general, and further including 14 documentation, screen shots or other information regarding the insurers' 15 databases, claims tracking software or other computer programs, as they are 16 proprietary business trade secrets which the Parties have consistently taken 17 reasonable steps to protect.
- 18 • Training materials, as they are proprietary business trade secrets which the 19 Parties have taken reasonable steps to protect.
- 20 • Employee compensation plan information, as these documents are proprietary 21 trade secrets and disclosure to the public would invade the privacy of third 22 parties.
- 23 • Personal identification information regarding employees of defendants, as 24 disclosure to the public would invade the privacy of those persons.

19 3. SCOPE

20 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 21 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; 22 (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any 23 testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal 24 confidential material.

25 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is 26 in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

1 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

2 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is 3 disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only 4 for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may 5 be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this 6 agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a 7 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 8 under this agreement.

9 4.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise 10 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may 11 disclose any confidential material only to:

12 (a) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as 13 employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this 14 litigation;

15 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel), 16 excess insurers, regulators, auditors, reinsurers, retrocessionaires, or brokers of the receiving 17 party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary, unless the parties agree that a particular 18 document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so designated;

19 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary 20 for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"
21 (Exhibit A);

22 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

23 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the 24 duplication of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or

1 imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties 2 and to immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

3 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 4 reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 5 Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the 6 court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal 7 confidential material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be 8 disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this agreement;

9 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 10 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

11 (h) any other party as required by law; and 12 (i) the settlement mediator(s) agreed to by the parties.

13 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing 14 or referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating 15 party to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation, 16 whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and 17 proposed order is warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be 18 followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court 19 to file material under seal.

20 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

21 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each 22 party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement 23 must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the 24 appropriate standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts 25 of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other

1 portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 2 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

3 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 4 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 5 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary 6 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

7 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it 8 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly 9 notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

10
11 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this agreement 12 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, 13 disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be 14 clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

16 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents 17 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 18 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page 19 that contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page 20 qualifies for protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected 21 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

22 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the 23 parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or 24 other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so 25 designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within 26 fifteen days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding,

1 designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-2 party desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during 3 the pre-trial conference.

4 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent 5 place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored 6 the word "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item 7 warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 8 portion(s).

10 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 11 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating 12 party's right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely 13 correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the 14 material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

15
16 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

17 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 18 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's 19 confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, 20 unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party 21 does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a 22 challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

23 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute 24 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding 25 confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion 26 or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer

1 conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action.
2 The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith 3 effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

4 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 5 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 6 Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden 7 of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, 8 and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and 9 burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall 10 continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the 11 challenge.

12 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 13 OTHER LITIGATION

14 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 15 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 16 "CONFIDENTIAL," that party must:

17 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of 18 the subpoena or court order;

19 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order 20 to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 21 order is subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; 22 and

23 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 24 pursued by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

1 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

2 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 3 confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 4 agreement, the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party 5 of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of 6 the protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures 7 were made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons 8 execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as 9 Exhibit A.

10 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE 11 PROTECTED MATERIAL

12 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 13 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 14 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 15 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery 16 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties 17 agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

18 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

19 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each 20 producing party may request return of all confidential material from the receiving party, 21 including all copies, extracts and summaries therefore. Otherwise, after 60 days, each 22 receiving party may appropriately shred, destroy and dispose of all confidential material.
23 Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

24 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel and each party may retain one archival copy 25 of all documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts,
