6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT SEATTLE

8 JAMES ANTHONY WILLIAMS,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 BRUCE C GAGE, et al.,

12 Defendants.

Case No. C18-0218-JCC-MAT

ORDER DENYING MOTIONS AND

14 This is a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 prisoner civil rights action. Plaintiff has nine ripe motions
15 pending. (Dkts. 76, 77, 88, 89, 90, 91, 93, 96, 99.) This order addresses Docket Nos. 88, 90, and 16 96. The Court addresses the remaining motions in a Report and Recommendation filed
17 concurrently with this order. For the reasons discussed below, the Court DENIES the motions
18 before it and RE-SETS the deadlines for plaintiff to file a motion for leave to amend and for the 19 parties to complete discovery and file dispositive motions.

20 DISCUSSION

21 A. Docket No. 88

22 Plaintiff asks the Court to send him a copy of his original complaint so he can draft his 23 supplemental response, order defendants to give him access to all of his mental health records, and

EXTENDING DEADLINES - 1

1 appoint a doctor to examine him for SHU-syndrome. (See Dkt. 88.) Plaintiff is not entitled to any
2 of the relief he seeks. First, plaintiff has already submitted his supplemental response (Dkt. 92)
3 and therefore his request for a copy of his complaint is moot. Second, plaintiff must obtain his 4 mental health records through proper discovery requests. Third, plaintiff is not entitled to a court-
5 ordered examination. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 35 provides that a court, upon a showing 6 of good cause, may “order a party whose mental or physical condition . . . is in controversy to 7 submit to a physical or mental examination by a suitably licensed or certified examiner.” Fed. R.
8 Civ. P. 35(a); see also Houghton v. M & F Fishing, Inc., 198 F.R.D. 666, 667 (S.D. Cal. 2001)
9 (citing Schlagenhauf v. Holder, 379 U.S. 104, 117 (1964)). “The purpose of Rule 35 is to allow a 10 movant to request examination of a party whose mental or physical condition is in controversy,
11 not for a party to request examination of himself for purposes of supporting his claim.” Quintana
12 v. Swarthout, No. 09-3221, 2012 WL 5499872, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 13, 2012). Indeed, Rule 35 13 “does not vest the court with authority to appoint an expert to examine a party wishing an 14 examination of himself.” Callegari v. Lee, No. 08-2420, 2011 WL 175927, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Jan.
15 19, 2011) (quoting Smith v. Carroll, 602 F. Supp. 2d 521, 526 (D. Del. 2009), and collecting cases).
16 Furthermore, the Court is aware of no authority allowing it to order an independent examination 17 at government expense for an indigent plaintiff in a civil action, and there is no indication in the 18 record that plaintiff has the funds to pay for the examination himself. See Tedder v. Odel, 890
19 F.2d 210, 211-12 (9th Cir. 1989) (“[T]he expenditure of public funds [on behalf of an indigent
20 litigant] is proper only when authorized by Congress . . . .”) (citation and internal quotation marks 21 omitted).

1 B. Docket No. 90

2 Plaintiff alleges that he issued discovery requests to defendants in late 2018 and that 3 defendants are withholding his copies of the documents he sent and failing to properly respond to 4 his requests. (See generally Dkt. 90.) Plaintiff claims that he has been unable to get access from 5 Ms. Dominique-Kastle to the necessary forms to issue additional discovery requests and therefore 6 will be unable to complete discovery by the January 31, 2020 deadline. (Id.) He asks the Court
7 to order defendants to send him a copy of his original discovery requests so that he has a template
8 to use for future requests and to compel defendants to produce evidence. (Id.) Defendants oppose 9 plaintiff's motion, arguing, inter alia, that plaintiff failed to comply with Federal Rule of Civil 10 Procedure 37(a) and Local Civil Rule 37(a). (See Dkt. 95.)

11 Plaintiff is not entitled to the relief he requests. First, in a declaration plaintiff filed on 12 October 28, 2019, he states that he found a sample discovery request and can now start drafting 13 discovery. (Dkt. 98 at 1.) Therefore, his request for his original discovery requests is moot.
14 Second, defendants are correct that plaintiff failed to comply with the applicable rules prior to 15 bringing his motion to compel. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37 requires a good faith effort to 16 confer prior to moving to compel. Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a). In addition to Rule 37, the Local Civil 17 Rules for the Western District of Washington provide:

18 Any motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery must include a 19 certification, in the motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has in 20 good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party failing to make 21 disclosure or discovery in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The 22 certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. If the movant fails to include such a certification, the court may deny the motion without addressing the merits of the dispute. A good faith effort to confer with a party or person not making a disclosure or discovery requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

23 Local Rules W.D. Wash. LCR 37(a)(1) (emphases added). Plaintiff did not comply with these

1 requirements prior to filing his motion, and therefore the Court will not consider the merits of his
2 motion. If plaintiff attempts to meet and confer with counsel for defendants and is unable to 3 resolve his dispute, he may file a motion to compel that complies with the applicable rules.

4 C. Docket No. 96

5 Plaintiff asks the Court to make a preliminary ruling on the adequacy of his discovery
6 requests before he issues them to defendants. (See generally Dkt. 96.) The Court does not issue
7 such rulings. Plaintiff must draft the requests to the best of his ability and serve them on 8 defendants. If he is not satisfied with defendants' responses, he must attempt to resolve his issues
9 directly with counsel for defendants. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 37; Local Rules W.D. Wash. LCR 37.
10 Only if he is unable to resolve his issues directly with counsel for defendants, he may file a motion
11 with the Court. If the motion complies with the applicable rules, the Court will review his requests.

12 Plaintiff also asks the Court to make a preliminary ruling regarding the sufficiency of new 13 claims he wants to add to this action in an amended complaint. (See Dkt. 96.) The Court, however,
14 does not make such preliminary rulings. If plaintiff would like the Court to review new claims, he 15 must file a motion for leave to amend accompanied by a proposed amended complaint. The Court
16 previously set November 1, 2019 as the deadline for plaintiff to file a motion for leave to amend 17 and a proposed amended complaint. The Court will grant plaintiff an extension of time until 18 March 6, 2020 to file a motion for leave to amend.

19 No further extension of time to file a motion for leave to amend will be granted absent
20 a showing of exceptional circumstances. The proposed amended complaint must contain a 21 "short and plain statement" of the grounds for relief, and each averment in the complaint must be 22 "simple, concise, and direct." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8. An amended complaint operates as a complete
23 substitute for the original complaint, see Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258, 1262 (9th Cir. 1992),

1 and thus the proposed amended complaint must clearly identify all the defendants, the 2 constitutional or federal statutory claims asserted, the specific facts that plaintiff believes support
3 each claim, and the specific relief requested. The Court will direct the Clerk to send plaintiff the 4 appropriate form to guide him in drafting his proposed amended complaint, which may not exceed
5 30 pages in length. In addition, plaintiff may, but is not required to, submit evidence in support 6 of his proposed amended complaint.

7 Plaintiff is reminded that the following principles of law govern this action. To sustain a 8 § 1983 civil rights claim, plaintiff must show (1) he suffered a violation of rights protected by the 9 Constitution or created by federal statute, and (2) the violation was proximately caused by a person
10 acting under color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988); Crumpton v. Gates, 947
11 F.2d 1418, 1420 (9th Cir. 1991). To satisfy the second prong, plaintiff must allege facts showing 12 how individually named defendants caused or personally participated in causing the harm alleged 13 in the complaint. Arnold v. IBM, 637 F.2d 1350, 1355 (9th Cir. 1981). Plaintiff must identify, as 14 to each individual defendant, what constitutional or federal statutory right he alleges that defendant
15 to have violated, and the facts that support each claim.

16 A defendant cannot be held liable solely on the basis of supervisory responsibility or 17 position. Monnell v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658, 694 (1978). Rather, a plaintiff must allege
18 that a defendant's own conduct violated the plaintiff's civil rights. City of Canton v. Harris, 49
19 U.S. 378, 385-90 (1989). In other words, plaintiff may not name defendants based solely on 20 supervisory liability.

21 D. Extension of Additional Deadlines

22 The discovery deadline is currently January 31, 2020, and the dispositive motions deadline
23 is March 6, 2020. Given that the Court is extending the deadline for plaintiff to file a motion for

1 leave to amend to March 6, 2020, the Court also extends the discovery deadline to March 6, 2020,
2 and the dispositive motions deadline to May 6, 2020. If the Court allows plaintiff to amend his
3 complaint, the Court will entertain motions by the parties to reset these deadlines.

4 II. CONCLUSION

5 The Court DENIES plaintiff's motions (Dkts. 88, 90, 96) and RE-SETS the following
6 deadlines:

7 Deadline for plaintiff to file motion for leave to amend March 6, 2020

8 Discovery deadline March 6, 2020

9 Dispositive motions deadline May 6, 2020

10 Plaintiff is reminded that no further extension of time to file a motion for leave to amend will be 11 granted absent a showing of exceptional circumstances, and any proposed amended complaint may 12 not exceed 30 pages.

13 The Clerk is directed to send plaintiff the appropriate form so that he may prepare a 14 proposed amended complaint and to send copies of this order to the parties and to the Honorable 15 John C. Coughenour.

16 Dated this 23rd day of January, 2020.
