No. 2:18-cv-00377-JLR
STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to FRCP 26(c), the parties to this action, by and through their respective counsel, hereby stipulate to the entry of this Protective Order Concerning Confidential Information ("Protective Order"), as follows:

Daniel T. Satterberg, Prosecuting Attorney
CIVIL DIVISION, Litigation Section
900 King County Administration Building
500 Fourth Avenue
Seattle, Washington 98104
(206) 296-0430 Fax (206) 296-8819

1 1. This Protective Order shall apply to all documents, materials, and information designated 2 as "CONFIDENTIAL" pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order, unless the 3 "CONFIDENTIAL" designation has been withdrawn by the designating party or by Order of the 4 Court, including without limitation, documents produced, answers to interrogatories, responses 5 to requests for admission, deposition testimony, and other information disclosed pursuant to the 6 disclosure or discovery duties created by the Civil Rules.

7 2. As used in this Protective Order, "document" is defined as provided in FRCP 34(a)(1)(A).
8 A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

9 3. "CONFIDENTIAL" information covered under the terms of this Protective Order shall 10 include the following documents, materials, and/or information produced or otherwise exchanged 11 by Richard Homchick, ("Plaintiff"), and by Defendants King County, King County Sheriff's 12 Office, King County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, John Urquhart, and Daniel Satterberg, 13 ("Defendants") and/or any of Plaintiff's or Defendants' agents or representatives, when designated 14 as "CONFIDENTIAL:"

15 (a) Protected Health Information ("PHI") as defined by the Health Insurance Portability and 16 Accountability Act ("HIPAA"); medical information, such as medical records, medical treatment, 17 medical diagnoses, and drug recommendations or prescriptions; medical billing information; and 18 investigations and statements to the extent they include the same;

19 (b) the financial status of Plaintiff and/or Defendants, including but not limited to any non-20 public financial information such as tax records, profit and loss statements, accounting documents, 21 reports, or assessments; business and contractual relationships; financial contracts; and 22 investigations and statements related to the same, excluding any such documents already in the 23 public domain;

1 (c) Contracts and other business documents subject to reasonable confidentiality or non-2 disclosure agreements; leases; and any other document that the parties stipulate is a confidential 3 business document;

4 (d) Information or documents obtained from third parties falling into the foregoing categories; 5 and 6 (e) Confidential employment or personnel information involving employees or former 7 employees of Defendant, including but not limited to information regarding such individuals' 8 hiring, job performance, discipline, termination of employment, or compensation or benefits.

9 4. The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only CONFIDENTIAL information 10 (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential information; 11 (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential information; and (3) any 12 testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential 13 information. However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that 14 is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

15 5. CONFIDENTIAL information shall not be disclosed or used for any purpose except the 16 prosecution, defense, preparation and trial of this case, including attempts to settle this litigation 17 and any appeals.

18 6. CONFIDENTIAL information shall not, without the consent of the party producing it or 19 further order of the Court, be disclosed, except that such information may be disclosed to:

20 (a) attorneys of record for the parties;

21 (b) persons regularly employed by or associated with the attorneys actively working on the 22 case whose assistance is required by said attorneys in the preparation for trial, at trial, or at other 23 proceedings in this case;

- 1 (c) the parties and their designated representatives including insurance adjusters;
- 2 (d) expert witnesses and consultants retained in connection with this proceeding, to the extent
- 3 reasonably necessary for this litigation;
- 4 (e) the Court and its employees (“Court Personnel”);
- 5 (f) court reporters, videographers, and their staff employed in connection with the above-
- 6 captioned suit and any appeals therefrom;
- 7 (g) deponents, witnesses, or potential witnesses (and their counsel, if any);
- 8 (h) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of confidential
- 9 information, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service instructs the
- 10 service not to disclose any confidential information to third parties and to immediately return all
- 11 originals and copies of any confidential information;
- 12 (i) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other
- 13 person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;
- 14 (j) mediators or other persons engaged in alternative dispute resolution; and
- 15 (k) other persons by written agreement of the parties or order of the Court.

16 7. Documents are designated as CONFIDENTIAL by placing or affixing on them (in a manner 17 that will not interfere with their legibility) or otherwise designating as CONFIDENTIAL in a clear

18 and conspicuous manner the following or other appropriate notice: “CONFIDENTIAL.”

19 Disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be clearly 20 so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced. An inadvertent failure to 21 designate qualified material as “confidential” does not, standing alone, waive the designating

22 party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such materials so long as the documents have

1 not previously been filed with the Court and are so designated by no later than the date established 2 by the Court for the cutoff of discovery.

3 The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, 4 items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the material, 5 documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 6 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement. If it comes to a designating party's attention that 7 information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, the designating 8 party must promptly notify all other parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation. The 9 designation of CONFIDENTIAL may be withheld or withdrawn at any time by agreement of all 10 parties at the request or initiative of any party.

11 8. Whenever a deposition involves the disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL information, the 12 portions thereof shall be designated as CONFIDENTIAL and shall be subject to the provisions of 13 this Protective Order. Such designation shall be made on the record during the deposition 14 whenever possible, but a party may designate portions of depositions as CONFIDENTIAL after 15 transcription, provided written notice of the designation is promptly given to all counsel of record 16 within thirty (30) days after receipt of the deposition transcript.

17 9. Any party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt 18 challenge to a designating party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, 19 substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the 20 litigation, a party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not 21 to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed. A party that elects to 22 initiate a challenge to a party's confidentiality designation must do so in good faith and must begin 23 the process by written notice to the party designating the disputed information. The written notice

1 shall identify the information to which the objection is made and explain the basis for its belief 2 that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must give the designating party an 3 opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change 4 in designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. If the parties cannot 5 resolve the dispute within ten (10) business days after the time the notice is received, either party 6 may then seek judicial intervention regarding the confidentiality of a document.

7 10. Before filing confidential material or discussing or referencing such material in court 8 filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party to determine whether the designating 9 party will remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether 10 a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted.

11 11. With respect to CONFIDENTIAL documents or information to be used at trial, the Court 12 ordinarily will treat trial exhibits and testimony as a matter of public record. The parties, however, 13 shall meet and confer before the Pretrial Conference to attempt to reach an agreement about the 14 confidentiality of information to be used at trial and a method for maintaining the confidentiality 15 of such information. At the Pretrial Conference, the parties may present, by motion or stipulation, 16 a proposed method for maintaining confidentiality. Nothing in this paragraph, however, shall be 17 construed as constraining the Court's authority to treat trial exhibits and testimony as matters of 18 public record.

19 12. Due to the large volume of electronic and hard copy data in the possession, custody, or 20 control of the parties and the numerous concerns regarding attorney-client privilege and work 21 product protection, the Court enters this "Clawback" Provision to expedite and facilitate the 22 production of electronic and hard copy data, information and documents, and to protect against 23 inadvertent disclosure of attorney-client privileged communications or work product materials.

1 The inadvertent disclosure or production of any information or document that is subject to an 2 objection on the basis of attorney-client privilege or work-product protection, including but not 3 limited to information or documents that may be considered Confidential Information under this 4 Protective Order, will not be deemed to waive a party's claim to its privileged or protected nature 5 of that party or the privilege holder from designating the information or document as attorney-6 client privileged or subject to the work product doctrine at a later date. Any party receiving such 7 a request as to specific information or documents, the receiving party shall return the information 8 or documents to the producing party within five (5) business day, regardless of whether the 9 receiving party agrees with the claim of privilege and/or work-product protection. Disclosure of 10 the information or document by the other party prior to such later designation shall not be deemed 11 a violation of the provisions of this Order. This Order and Clawback Provision shall be governed 12 by Evidence Rule 502 (d) and is entered pursuant to Civil Rule 26(c).

13 13. When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 14 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 15 receiving parties are those set forth in Civil Rule 26(b)(6). This provision is not intended to modify 16 whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for 17 production without prior privilege review. Parties shall confer on an appropriate non-waiver order 18 under Evidence Rule 502.

19 14. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to constitute a waiver of any party's 20 right to oppose discovery on any ground, or to object on any ground to the admission into evidence 21 of any document, testimony, or other information at the trial of this action.

1 15. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to constitute a waiver of any party's 2 right to withhold documents and/or information under the attorney-client privilege, the work 3 product doctrine or any other privilege or protection recognized under Washington law.

4 16. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to constitute a waiver of any party's 5 right to obtain documents and information as otherwise protected by law.

6 17. Within sixty (60) days of the conclusion of this case, unless other arrangements are agreed 7 upon, each document and all copies thereof which have been designated as CONFIDENTIAL shall 8 be returned to the party that designated it CONFIDENTIAL, or the parties may elect to destroy 9 CONFIDENTIAL documents. Where the parties agree to destroy CONFIDENTIAL documents, 10 the destroying party shall provide all parties with a written notice confirming the destruction.
11 Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, 12 motion papers, transcripts, legal memoranda, discovery, and/or correspondence even if such 13 materials contain CONFIDENTIAL information. Any such archival copies that contain or 14 constitute CONFIDENTIAL information remain subject to this Protective Order.

15 18. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to preclude a CONFIDENTIAL 16 designation despite the fact material has been de-identified by removing any and all of the elements 17 as described in the Privacy Rule of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act. This 18 Order is intended to comply with the requirements of 45 C.F.R. §164.512(e) related to disclosure 19 of protected health information for judicial and administrative proceedings.

20 19. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to seek its modification by the Court 21 in the future.

22 20. This Protective Order may be modified by the Court at any time following notice to all 23 parties and an opportunity for them to be heard.

1 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.

2 DATED this 22nd day of July, 2019.
