

Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

PROVIDENCE HEALTH AND SERVICES;
and SWEDISH HEALTH SERVICES,

Plaintiffs,

v.

CERTAIN UNDERWRITERS AT LLOYD'S
LONDON, SYNDICATE 2623/623
(BEAZLEY); and FEDERAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

Defendants.

NO. 2:18-cv-00495 RSM

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties, Plaintiffs Providence Health and Services and Swedish Health Services (“Providence”) and Defendants Certain Underwriters at Lloyd’s London, Syndicate 2623/623 (“Beazley”) and Federal Insurance Company (collectively “Insurers”), hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery,

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER- 1
No. 2:18-cv-00495 RSM

J R U G R Q # 600 University Street
W I O G H Q # Suite 2915
W K R P D V # Seattle, WA 98101-4172
F R U G H O O # 206.467.6477

the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

“Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged:

- Documents with patient health information that Providence is obligated to protect under a variety of laws, including but not limited to, the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act and Washington’s Uniform Health Care Information Act.
- Documents that include confidential commercial information, including but not limited to trade secrets, policies regarding proprietary business operations, employment contracts, and business organization charts.

The parties reserve the right to seek leave for amendment of this order by the Court if additional categories of materials are identified as this matter proceeds

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

4.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any confidential material only to:

(a) the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

(b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney’s Eyes Only and is so designated;

(c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

(d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

(e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

(f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this agreement;

1 (g) any governmental regulators, auditors, reinsurers, or others for whom the
2 review of a parties' files may be required by law, regulation, treaty, or contract;

4 (h) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a
5 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

8 (i) any other person or entity that the producing party agrees to in writing

10 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 11 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party,
12 in accordance with LCR 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will remove the 13 confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or 14 stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the designating
15 party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, and the filing 16 party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing the 17 information at issue. LCR 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards
18 that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal. A 19 party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the requirements of 20 LCR 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal. Failure to satisfy this 21 requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with the strong
22 presumption of public access to the Court's files.
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31

32 4.4 Use of Confidential Materials at Trial. The parties shall meet and confer regarding 33 the procedures for use of any Confidential materials at trial and, in the event an agreement is 34 reached by the parties, shall move the Court for entry of an appropriate order. Otherwise, the 35 burden shall be on the designating party to obtain a Court Order requiring special procedures for 36 use of any Confidential materials at trial.
37
38
39
40

41 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

42 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 43 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 44
45

1 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
2 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material,
3 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 4 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept
5 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

10 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 11 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 12 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 13 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

16 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 17 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties
18 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.
19

20
21
22 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 23 agreement (see, e.g., section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure or 24 discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must be clearly so designated 25 before or when the material is disclosed or produced.
26

27
28
29 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 30 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings),
31 the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains 32 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection,
33 the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 34 markings in the margins).
35

36
37
38 (b) Electronic documents / files produced in their native format (e.g., Excel
39 spreadsheets, Power Point files, etc.): for electronic documents / files produced in native format,
40 the designating party may insert the word "CONFIDENTIAL" into the name of the document /
41 file, the metadata fields produced, or affix it to the image slip sheet of the native file rather than 42
43
44
45

1 affixing it to each page within the document / file itself. If only a portion of the document / file is
3 “CONFIDENTIAL,” a clear explanation shall be provided in writing by the designating party that
4 specifies what particular aspect(s) of the document / file are designated “CONFIDENTIAL.”

6 (c) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties
7 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial
8 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony
9 after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the 10 transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or 11 exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information
12 at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.
13
14

15 (d) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place
16 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
17 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 18 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).
19
20

21 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 22 designate qualified physical or electronic documents, information, or other items does not,
23 standing alone, waive the designating party’s right to secure protection under this agreement for 24 such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable
25 efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.
26
27

28 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

29 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 30 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s confidentiality 31 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 32 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 33 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 34 original designation is disclosed.
35
36
37
38
39
40
41
42
43
44
45

1           6.2    Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
3 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential
4 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration
5 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other
6 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list
7 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-
8 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

11
12
13           6.3    Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a designation challenge without 14 court intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under 15 LCR 7 (and in compliance with LCR 5(g), if applicable). The burden of persuasion in any such 16 motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous designations and/or challenges, and those made 17 for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other 18 parties) may expose the designating and/or challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall 19 continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the designation
20 challenge.
21

22
23
24
25
26
27   7.    PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
28
29 LITIGATION

30           If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
31 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 32 must:
33

34           (a)    promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 35 subpoena or court order;
36

37           (b)    promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 38 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 39 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 40
41
42
43
44
45

1 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by
3 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

4 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

6 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
7 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving
8 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures,
9 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the 10 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement,
11 and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 12 Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
13
14
15
16
17

18 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
19 MATERIAL
20

21 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 22 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 23 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 24 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or 25 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 26 entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.
27
28
29
30
31

32 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OR DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
33

34 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 35 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all exact copies, and 36 must destroy any non-exact copies, extracts, and/or summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties
37 may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction of confidential material other than non-exact
38 copies, extracts, and/or summaries. The provisions of this Paragraph 10 shall not be binding on 39 any party to the extent that they conflict with applicable Federal or State law or regulations. The 40 Parties shall be entitled to retain any materials provided that contain confidential materials to the 41
42
43
44
45

1 extent and for the time required by any applicable regulatory requirements or until any good faith
2 coverage dispute between the Parties is resolved.

4 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
5 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
6 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work
7 product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

10 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 11 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
12
13
