

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

CARTER JESNESS,

Plaintiff,

v.

GREGORY LYLE BRIDGES,

Defendant.

Case No. C18-1225RSM

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO REOPEN DISCOVERY

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's "Motion to Extend Pretrial Deadlines." Dkt. #46. Plaintiff states that he moves for "an extension of all pretrial deadlines previously provided in this matter," but requests the following changes to the scheduling order:

EVENT	OLD DEADLINE	NEW DEADLINE
Disclosure of expert testimony	11/18/2020	2/18/21
Discovery Motion deadline	12/18/20	3/18/21
Discovery cutoff	1/19/21	4/19/21

Dkt. #46 at 1–2. The reasons for this request are presented in two sentences only: "Trial in this matter was continued to May 17, 2021 (Dkt. 44) and Order Setting Trial Dates was served on the parties (Dkt. 45). The trial of this matter will be on general damages only, and it is in the 1 interests of justice to have any expert evaluations close rin [sic] time to the trial date.” Id. at 1.

2 Defendant has not filed a timely response.

3 Discovery has already closed. See Dkt. #20. So has the deadline to disclose experts. Id.
4 The only remaining deadlines in this case are for motions in limine and other pretrial materials.
5 See Dkt. #45.

7 A scheduling order “may be modified only for good cause and with the judge’s
8 consent.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(4).

9 The Court finds that Plaintiffs have failed to demonstrate good cause to modify the 10 requested deadlines. It is true that having expert evaluations closer to trial would be helpful for 11 the trier of fact. However, it is unclear to the Court whether Plaintiff is simply seeking 12 permission to supplement discovery or expert reports, or whether Plaintiff is seeking to 13 introduce an undisclosed expert after the close of discovery. Rather than guess at what is being 14 requested and on what basis, the Court will simply deny this Motion at this time.
15

16 Having reviewed the relevant briefing and the remainder of the record, the Court hereby 17 finds and ORDERS that Plaintiff’s Motion to Extend Pretrial Deadlines, Dkt. #46 is DENIED.
