The Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez

10 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 11 FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
 12

13 MARTIN J. WALSH,
 Secretary of Labor,
 14 United States Department of Labor,
 15 Plaintiff,
 16 v.

Case No. 2:21-cv-00635-RSM

ORDER GRANTING SECRETARY’S MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT AGAINST
 DEFENDANTS

17 GUTTERS PERFECT INC., dba LEAF
 FILTER, a Washington corporation, and
 18 GUTTERS PERFECT, INC. 401(K)
 PROFIT SHARING PLAN, a Safe Harbor
 19 Defined Contribution Plan
 20 Defendants.
 21

23 The United States Secretary of Labor (the “Secretary”) brought this action
 24 requesting that the Court appoint an independent fiduciary to act as a fiduciary for 25 Gutters Perfect, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (“Plan”) pursuant to the Employee
 26 Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 1001-1191c, and to 27 obtain other equitable relief to redress violations and enforce the provisions of ERISA

ORDER GRANTING SECRETARY’S
 MOTION
 (2:21-cv-00635-RSM)

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
 OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR
 90 7th Street, Suite 3-700
 San Francisco, CA 94103-1516
 (206) 757-6757

1 pursuant to Section 502(a)(2) and (5), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(2) and (5). The Secretary now
2 brings a motion for entry of a default judgment against Defendants Gutters Perfect Inc.,
3 (“Gutters Perfect”) and the Plan (together “Defendants”) under Rule 55(b)(2) of the 4 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, seeking a judgment appointing an independent
5 fiduciary to perform various duties, including distribution of Plan participant’s retirement
6 savings from the Plan.

7
8 Following entry of default, courts are authorized to grant default judgment under 9 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55. In exercising its discretion, the factors the court may 10 consider include: (1) the possibility of prejudice to the plaintiff, (2) the merits of 11 plaintiff’s substantive claim, (3) the sufficiency of the complaint, (4) the sum of money at 12 stake in the action, (5) the possibility of a dispute concerning material facts, (6) whether 13 the default was due to excusable neglect, and (7) the strong public policy underlying the 14 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure favoring decisions on the merits. Eitel v. McCool, 782
15 F.2d 1470, 1471–72 (9th Cir. 1986). In considering these factors, all factual allegations in 16 the plaintiff’s complaint are taken as true, except for those relating to damages. TeleVideo
17 Sys., Inc. v. Heidenthal, 826 F.2d 915, 917–918 (9th Cir. 1987). After having considered
18 the documents filed in support of the motion, the Complaint, the file in this action, and all
19 other matters presented to the Court, including the discussion of the factors set forth in 20 Eitel, 782 F.2d at 1471–72, the Court finds as follows:

- 21 1. Gutters Perfect was dissolved by the State of Washington in March 2013.
- 22 2. Jack Mitchell Reed, the Plan’s sole trustee, is deceased, and as such is not 23 available to perform his duties as trustee such as authorizing the Plan’s asset
24 custodian, Charles Schwab and Co., Inc., to distribute plan assets to Plan
25 participants and beneficiaries.
26

- 1 3. Default was entered by the Clerk of the Court against Defendants on 2 September 13, 2021.
- 3 4. Defendants did not appear or otherwise defend in this action after the Secretary
4 served the Washington Secretary of State a copy of the summons and
5 complaint in this action in compliance with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
6 4(e)(1) and 4(h)(1)(A), and Revised Code of Washington 23.95.450(4).
- 7 5. Absent entry of default judgment against Defendants and appointment of an 8 independent fiduciary, the Secretary and Plan participants and beneficiaries
9 would be prejudiced because the Plan's asset custodian has custody of the Plan
10 assets (Plan participants' retirement savings) and refuses to distribute the Plan
11 assets without authorization of the Plan's sole trustee, who is deceased.
- 12 6. The Secretary has alleged sufficient facts in his complaint, which the Court
13 must accept as true for purposes of establishing liability, to show that Gutters
14 Perfect violated ERISA. In particular, Gutters Perfect failed to determine and 15 pay benefits under the Plan, resulting in participants' and beneficiaries'
16 inability to access plan assets and Gutters Perfect failed to act with the care,
17 skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a 18 prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would 19 use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims as 20 required by 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)(B).
- 21 7. The Secretary does not seek a money judgment against Defendants.
- 22 8. There is no possibility of a dispute regarding the material facts alleged by the 23 Secretary. Governmental websites corroborate some of the Secretary's
24 allegations such as Gutters Perfect's status as a dissolved entity and the death
25 of sole trustee Jack Mitchell Reed in October 2019.
26
27
28

1 9. Default was not due to excusable neglect. The Secretary properly served
2 Defendants by way of the Washington Secretary of State and did not receive
3 any Response from Defendants. Publicly available documents show that the 4 company is no longer in operation, which supports a finding that default was 5 not the result of excusable neglect.

6 10. While public policy generally favors resolution of complaints on the merits,
7 this policy is not absolute and must be weighed against other equities such as 8 prejudice to the plaintiff.
9

10 THEREFORE, IT IS ADJUDGED AND ORDERED that:
11

- 12 1. Defendants violated 29 U.S.C. §§ 1104(a)(1)(A), 1104(a)(1)(B) and 1105(a)(1)-(3)
13 of Title I of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1001-1191c.
- 14 2. AMI Benefit Plan Administrators, Inc. is hereby appointed as independent 15 fiduciary with discretionary authority over the administration and management of 16 the Plan, with all the rights, duties, discretion, and responsibilities of a trustee,
17 fiduciary, and Plan Administrator under ERISA to perform the following duties:
- 18 a. The independent fiduciary shall be responsible for marshaling, calculating 19 the account balances, allocating, paying out, distributing, and administering
20 Plan assets for all the assets in the Plan, and taking further action with 21 respect to the Plan as appropriate, and terminating the Plan when all of its 22 assets are distributed to all of the eligible Plan participants and 23 beneficiaries;
- 24 b. The independent fiduciary shall, pursuant to the procedures outlined in the 25 Employee Benefits Security Administration’s (“EBSA”) Field Assistance
26 Bulletin No. 2014-01, exercise reasonable care and diligence to identify and 27

1 locate each participant and beneficiary of the Plan who is eligible to receive
2 a distribution under the terms of the Plan;

- 3 c. The independent fiduciary shall have full access to all data, information,
4 and calculations in the possession of the Plan and under its control,
5 including information and records maintained by the Defendants, their 6 attorneys, their accountants, and other agents, as well as service providers
7 of the Plan;
- 8 d. The independent fiduciary shall comply with all applicable rules and laws;
- 9 e. The independent fiduciary has all the rights, duties, discretion and 10 responsibilities of a trustee, fiduciary and Plan Administrator under ERISA,
11 including filing annual and/or final Form 5500;
- 12 f. For services performed pursuant to this judgment, the independent fiduciary 13 shall receive compensation not to exceed $3,810.00 for fees and expenses
14 reasonably and necessarily incurred in administrating and terminating the 15 Plan; and
- 16 g. The independent fiduciary's fees and expenses shall be paid from the assets
17 of the Plan, or alternatively by the Secretary out of EBSA's Abandoned
18 Plan Fund, which was established to defray the expenses of the 19 administration and termination of low asset abandoned plans.
