The Honorable Ricardo S. Martinez

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ELIZABETH DE COSTER et al., on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

AMAZON.COM, INC., a Delaware corporation,

Defendant.

No. 2:21-cv-00693-RSM

STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER REGARDING EXPERT DISCOVERY

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
May 18, 2023

1 The Parties in the above-captioned action, by and through their respective undersigned 2 counsel, have agreed and stipulated to certain protocols regarding expert discovery in the above
3 captioned action (“Expert Stipulation”), subject to approval by the Court.

4 I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

5 1. This Expert Stipulation applies to the Parties to the above captioned action and 6 provides the protocols for conducting expert discovery.

7 2. Except as provided otherwise herein, expert discovery shall be governed by the 8 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. To the extent that this Expert Stipulation imposes limitations 9 on discovery which otherwise would be available under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the 10 Parties have agreed to any such limitations. Neither the terms of the Stipulation and Order nor 11 the Parties’ agreement to them shall be considered an admission by any person that any of the 12 information restricted from discovery by this Stipulation and Order would otherwise be 13 discoverable or admissible.

14 3. This Expert Stipulation shall apply to all prior and future work by experts in this 15 action.

16 4. Nothing in this Expert Stipulation shall limit or waive a Party’s right to object to 17 the admission into evidence of any opposing Party’s expert report or opinion(s) or other 18 materials, or to the qualification of any person to serve as an expert witness.

19 5. The Parties agree that they are not required to produce or exchange any log of any 20 material, otherwise discoverable, that is precluded from discovery or disclosure pursuant to this 21 Expert Stipulation.

22 II. NON-TESTIFYING EXPERTS

23 6. Except as provided for in the Protective Order, dated February 27, 2023, the 24 Parties agree that there shall be no discovery or disclosure with respect to non-testifying experts;
25 provided, however, that if a Party retains as a consulting expert a person who is otherwise a fact 26 witness, only that person’s communications within the scope of a bona fide consulting expert 27 agreement shall be exempt from discovery or disclosure under this paragraph.

1 7. The Parties agree that notes, drafts, written communications, or other records of 2 preliminary or intermediate work prepared or created by, or at the direction of, non-testifying 3 experts shall not be the subject of any form of discovery (including by deposition).

4 8. The Parties agree that budgets, invoices, bills, receipts, or time records concerning 5 non-testifying experts or their staff, assistants, colleagues, or associates, or their companies or 6 organizations, shall not be the subject of any form of discovery (including by deposition).

7 9. To the extent a non-testifying expert is later designated and disclosed as a 8 testifying expert, that person shall be subject to discovery or disclosure pursuant to Section III of 9 this Expert Stipulation governing testifying experts, including with respect to any documents that 10 would otherwise be subject to protection under this Section II arising from that person's work as 11 a non-testifying expert.

12 III. TESTIFYING EXPERTS

13 A. Expert Materials to Be Disclosed

14 10. Within three (3) business days after service of a report under Rule 26(a)(2)(B), the 15 Party submitting the report shall produce:

16 a. all documents relied upon by the expert in forming their opinions for such 17 report, except to the extent such documents have already been produced in the above captioned 18 litigation or are publicly available, and can be readily identified from the report;

19 b. a copy of all data and other information relied upon by the expert in 20 forming their opinions for such report, including, but not limited to, underlying data, 21 spreadsheets (including formulas therein), computerized regression analysis and/or other 22 underlying reports, programs, computer codes and schedules sufficient to reconstruct the work, 23 calculations, and/or analyses upon which the testifying expert is relying for their opinions;

24 c. exhibits, information, charts, tables or data processed or modeled by a 25 computer at the direction of a testifying expert and relied upon by the testifying expert in the 26 course of forming the testifying expert's opinions;

1 d. all raw and final data sets exactly as relied upon by the testifying expert, 2 and all spreadsheets in the expert report or exhibits thereto in native format; and

3 e. copies of industry reports and articles, as well as copies of any excerpt(s) 4 of books, as relied upon by the testifying expert.

5 11. Information required by Paragraph 10 shall be produced electronically (via email, 6 disc, or FTP site), and (where feasible) in native format or, if native format is not available, a 7 format from which all data contained within is readily extractable. To the extent that such 8 disclosures include charts, tables, exhibits, information or data processed or modeled by 9 computer, the submitting Party shall produce machine-readable copies of the charts, tables, 10 exhibits, information or data (including all linked or used data and data files, input and output 11 files, formulas contained within spreadsheet cells and similar electronic information necessary to 12 understand the charts, tables, exhibits, information or data) sufficient to allow the replication of 13 all analysis contained in the report, along with a list of all computer programs used by the expert
14 for any numerical or other analysis in the report; the Parties agree to meet and confer in good 15 faith regarding access to and use of any program(s) that are not commercially available. In 16 addition, to the extent such disclosures include information gleaned from websites and from 17 third-party sources not readily available, copies of the content of those websites or third-party 18 sources shall also be provided. For avoidance of doubt, the disclosure requirement in this 19 paragraph does not apply to any demonstratives that a Party may create for future court hearings
20 or trial. The use and disclosure of expert demonstratives at trial will be governed by a pre-trial 21 stipulation or order.

22 12. Documents that have been previously produced in the above captioned action 23 need not be produced if they are identified by Bates number.

24 13. Transcripts of depositions taken and previously produced in the above captioned 25 action need not be produced if the producing Party identifies in writing the deponent names and 26 dates for transcripts.

1 B. Expert Materials Not Requiring Disclosure and Limits on Discovery

2 14. The below-listed categories of documents, communications, and other recording 3 media need not be disclosed by any Party and an expert may not be examined at deposition, 4 hearing or trial on the contents of the below-listed categories of documents, communications,
5 and other recording media:

6 a. any notes or other writings taken or prepared by or for an expert witness in 7 connection with this matter (aside from the final written expert report(s) and notes generated or 8 referred to by the expert while testifying at deposition, hearing, or trial), including (i) written 9 correspondence or memoranda to or from, and notes of conversations between and among, the 10 expert witness and (a) the expert's assistants and/or clerical or support staff (regardless of title), 11 (b) other expert witnesses or non-testifying expert consultants, including their assistants and/or 12 clerical or support staff (regardless of title); (c) attorneys for the Party or Parties for whom the 13 expert is offering opinions and their clerical or support staff; and (iv) the Party or Parties for 14 whom the testifying expert is offering opinions;

15 b. copies of materials produced by any Party in this litigation bearing the 16 notes, markings, or comments of the expert, the expert's assistants and/or clerical or support 17 staff, other expert witnesses or non-testifying expert consultants (including their staffs), or 18 attorneys for the Party or Parties and their clerical or support staff;

19 c. any draft reports, draft studies, draft work papers, draft declarations, or 20 other draft materials or preliminary work product prepared by, for, or at the direction of, an 21 expert witness or his or her staff or agents, regardless of the form in which the draft is recorded; 22 and

23 d. the content or fact of any communications, written or otherwise 24 exchanged, recounted, or memorialized in connection with the above captioned action among 25 and between a testifying expert and any other person, including: (i) the testifying expert's 26 assistants and/or clerical or support staff (regardless of title), (ii) other expert witnesses or non-27 testifying expert consultants (including their assistants and/or clerical or support staff),

1 (iii) attorneys for the Party or Parties and their clerical or support staff, regardless of the form of 2 such communications, and (iv) the Party or Parties for whom the testifying expert is offering 3 opinions; and

4 e. any budgets, invoices, bills, receipts, work plans, or time records 5 concerning a testifying expert's work in the above captioned action.

6 15. Except as stated in Paragraph 17, the foregoing exclusions from discovery set 7 forth in Paragraph 14 do not apply to any facts, information, communications, or documents that 8 the expert relies upon as a basis for forming their opinions in the above captioned action.

9 16. This Expert Stipulation does not preclude reasonable questions at a deposition, 10 hearing, or trial related to a testifying expert's compensation, or the number of hours the 11 testifying expert expended in preparing their opinion(s).

12 17. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent questions relating to the substance of 13 the testifying expert's opinion(s) (including alternative theories, methodologies, variables, or 14 assumptions that the testifying expert may not have relied upon in forming his or her opinions).
15 Thus, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, a testifying expert may be presented at a 16 deposition, hearing, or trial with documents, testimony, or other materials not disclosed in this 17 Section III and questioned about whether the testifying expert relied or did not rely on such 18 documents, testimony, or other materials in formulating their opinion(s), and whether such 19 documents, testimony, or other materials would cause the testifying expert to alter their 20 opinion(s) in any respect. A testifying expert's communications with their employees and staff 21 and non-testifying expert consultants (including their assistants and/or clerical or support staff), 22 as well as any communications with counsel for the producing Party as to the relevance or 23 significance of facts or data and as to the consideration of alternatives, however, are completely 24 exempt from disclosure.

25 18. Nothing in this Stipulation shall be construed to preclude or limit the 26 discoverability of any documents or other information relied upon by an expert witness in 27 preparing his or her report(s) or that is otherwise discoverable under any order of the Court.
