UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT SEATTLE

IN RE APPLICATION OF NAGRAVISION
SA,

Case No.: 2:21-mc-00051-RSL

Applicant.

ORDER GRANTING NAGRAVISION
SA'S EX PARTE APPLICATION TO OBTAIN DISCOVERY FOR USE IN FOREIGN PROCEEDING PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1782

Having considered the application of Nagravision SA (“Nagravision”) for an order pursuant 28 U.S.C. § 1782 to obtain discovery from Amazon Technologies, Inc. (“Amazon”) for use in a foreign proceeding, and good cause appearing, the Court hereby GRANTS the application and ORDERS that:

1. Nagravision may serve a subpoena on Amazon for information concerning the server identified by the IP address 18.184.217.102 (the “Amazon Server”).

2. Nagravision may obtain the following information concerning the Amazon Server:

a. Account profiles or other documents sufficient to identify the full name, contact information, and IP addresses for the customer assigned the Amazon Server;

b. Account applications or other documents used to create or make changes to each account associated with the customer assigned the Amazon Server;

c. Account statements for each account associated with the customer assigned

1 the Amazon Server from January 1, 2020 to present;

2 d. Payment records for each account associated with the customer assigned
3 the Amazon Server from January 1, 2020 to present, including documents that identify the 4 account or other source from which the payment was made;

5 e. Communications sent to or from the customer assigned the Amazon Server
6 from January 1, 2020 to present, including account set-up correspondence and technical support
7 tickets;

8 f. Logs or other documents sufficient to identify each IP address that 9 accessed the Amazon Server, including a date and time stamp for each instance of access, from 10 January 1, 2020 to present.

11 3. Nagravision and Amazon shall adhere to the following schedule when producing 12 the information requested in the subpoena (the “Discovery”):

13 a. Nagravision must immediately serve its subpoena and a copy of this order
14 (collectively, the “Order”) on Amazon;

15 b. Within seven days of being served with the Order, Amazon must serve a 16 copy of the Order on its customer. Service may be accomplished by any reasonable means,
17 including written notice sent by first-class mail to the customer’s last known address or by email
18 to the customer’s last known email address;

19 c. Amazon and its customers may contest Nagravision’s subpoena by filing
20 an appropriate motion with this Court. Any such motion must be filed with this Court no later 21 than 21 days after the customer is served with the Order. Amazon may not produce the 22 Discovery to Nagravision before the expiration of this 21-day time period. In addition, if the 23 customer files a motion contesting Nagravision’s subpoena, Amazon must not produce the 24 Discovery pertaining to that customer until after the motion is resolved by the Court. If the 21-
25 day time period expires without a motion being filed, Amazon will have 7 days from the 26 expiration of the 21-day period to produce the Discovery to Nagravision.
