UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT TACOMA

MAJOR MARGARET WITT,	)
Plaintiff,	) No. C06-5195 RBL
v. UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE, et al., Defendants.	DEFENDANTS' OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION, INTERROGATORIES, AND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION
Defendants.	) ) ) )

Pursuant to Rules 33, 34, and 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, defendants the Department of the Air Force; Robert M. Gates, the Secretary of Defense; Michael B. Donley, the Secretary of the Air Force; and Colonel Janette Moore-Harbert, the commander of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, McChord Air Force Base, hereby submit the following objections and responses to Plaintiff's First Requests for Admission, Interrogatories, and Requests for Production to Defendants.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Defendants object to the definitions and instructions in Plaintiff's First Requests for Admission, Interrogatories, and Requests for Production to Defendants to the extent that they conflict with or purport to expand upon Defendants' obligations under the Federal Rules of Civil

(C06-5195-RBL) DEFENDANTS' OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION, INTERROGATORIES, AND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION - 1

Procedure or the Civil Rules for the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington.

- 2. Defendants object to Plaintiff's First Requests for Admission, Interrogatories, and Requests for Production to Defendants to the extent that they seek information and documents protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the law-enforcement privilege, the deliberative-process privilege, the investigatory files privilege, the work-product doctrine, the Privacy Act, and any other applicable privilege or protection.
- 3. Defendants object to Plaintiff's First Requests for Admission, Interrogatories, and Requests for Production to Defendants to the extent that they are overly broad or attempt to impose obligations on Defendants that are unduly burdensome, expensive, and/or oppressive.
- 4. Defendants reserve the right to amend, supplement, or alter these objections and responses to Plaintiff's First Requests for Admission, Interrogatories, and Requests for Production to Defendants at any time. Defendants further reserve the right to redact any portions of documents for any reason contemplated under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the Civil Rules for the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington without waiving any rights either by doing so or by producing un-redacted portions of documents.
- 5. Defendants object to these requests as unduly burdensome to the extent that they require production of electronic documents, the retrieval of which, to the extent possible, would involve undue expense, time, and allocation of resources for minimal return.
- 6. Defendants object to these requests as unduly burdensome to the extent that they seek information or documents that is publicly available; part of any court, magistrate, or tribunal proceeding; or in plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
- 7. Defendants object to the requests for production of documents for failing to specify a time, place, and manner for production. Defendants will produce documents at a mutually agreeable time and place, and in a mutually agreeable manner.
- 8. These General Objections shall apply to each of the discovery requests below, notwithstanding any specific objections set forth below.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1

Admit or deny the truth of this statement: Defendants are unaware of the existence of any person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who has ever complained that Major Witt's presence in the 446th had a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit morale or unit discipline.

RESPONSE: Defendants object to this request for admission as unduly burdensome to the extent that it presupposes or requires information gathering that would be contrary to the chain-of-command functionality of the military and/or that would compromise unit morale and unit cohesion – Congress's stated goals underlying 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Defendants also object to this request for admission because plaintiff's use of the term "complained," is vague and capable of multiple meanings. The term "complained" could refer to on-the-job complaints, off-the-job complaints, formal complaints, informal complaints, or other varieties of complaints. Moreover, the term "complained" is vague and unclear due to its subjectivity – a factual statement could be viewed by one person as a complaint and by another as a recitation of facts. For purposes of responding to this request for admission, defendants interpret the term "complained" as including the denial of participation memorandum from Colonel Mary L. Walker and her subsequent recommendation for action.

Defendants object to the term "negative impact" as vague, capable of multiple meanings, and potentially misleading because it is unclear whether it refers to a person's overall impact or whether it refers to the specific impact of a particular act or attribute of that person.

Defendants object to plaintiff's use of the term "unit" because it is vague and ambiguous, as to whether that term as used by plaintiff refers to only members of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron or whether it applies to other groups of military personnel who on a given assignment are required to work together as a unit.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants deny the statement.

If your response to this Request for Admission was "DENY" then pursuant to Rule 36(a)(4) state in detail why you cannot truthfully admit it and answer the following interrogatory:

OBJECTION: Defendants object to this instruction to the extent that it purports to impose an obligation that is not contained in Rule 36(a)(4). Instead, Rule 36(a)(4) requires a detailed statement of "why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny it," only as an alternative to admitting or specifically denying the statement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4).

INTERROGATORY NO. 1

Identify each person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who has complained that Major Witt's presence in the 446th had a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit morale or unit discipline, and state all the facts known to defendants regarding such a complaint. When identifying each such person give their full name, rank, present duty assignment, present address, or if not known the person's last known address, any known telephone number (home and cell phone) and any known present email address (personal or military).

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 1 as objections to this interrogatory.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory because it asks two discrete questions: (i) an identification of the persons who complained of Major Witt's presence in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron and (ii) an identification of all facts known to defendants regarding such a complaint. Accordingly, this inquiry constitutes two separate interrogatories under Rule 33(a).

Defendants also object to this interrogatory as overly broad to the extent that it seeks information for time periods predating Margaret Witt's assignment to 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron.

Moreover, Defendants object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks the disclosure of personal information protected by the Privacy Act.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants identify Colonel Mary Walker in response to this interrogatory based on the denial of participation memorandum and her subsequent recommendation for action.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2

Admit or deny the truth of this statement: Defendants are unaware of the existence of any person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who has ever complained that the presence of a known lesbian within the 446th either had, or would have, a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit morale or unit discipline.

RESPONSE: Defendants object to this request for admission as unduly burdensome to the extent that it presupposes or requires information gathering that would be contrary to the chain-of-command functionality of the military and/or that would compromise unit morale and unit cohesion – Congress's stated goals underlying 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Defendants also object to this request for admission because plaintiff's use of the term "complained," is vague and capable of multiple meanings. The term "complained" could refer to on-the-job complaints, off-the-job complaints, formal complaints, informal complaints, or other varieties of complaints. Moreover, the term "complained" is vague and unclear due to its subjectivity – a factual statement could be viewed by one person as a complaint and by another as a recitation of facts. For purposes of responding to this request for admission, defendants interpret the term "complained" as including the denial of participation memorandum from

Plaintiff used the term "known lesbian." Defendants object to that term because it is vague in multiple respects, including (but not limited to) the relationship of the term to 10 U.S.C. § 654, and the basis of any of the complaints described in plaintiff's request for admission. For purposes of responding to this request for admission, defendants interpret the term to include Margaret Witt.

Defendants object to the term "negative impact" as vague, capable of multiple meanings, and potentially misleading because it is unclear whether it refers to a person's overall impact or whether it refers to the specific impact of a particular act or attribute of that person.

Defendants object to plaintiff's use of the term "unit" because it is vague and ambiguous, as to whether that term as used by plaintiff refers to only members of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron or whether it applies to other groups of military personnel who on a given assignment are required to work together as a unit.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants deny the statement.

If your response to this Request for Admission was "DENY" then pursuant to Rule 36(a)(4) state in detail why you cannot truthfully admit it and answer the following interrogatory:

OBJECTION: Defendants object to this instruction to the extent that it purports to impose an obligation that is not contained in Rule 36(a)(4). Instead, Rule 36(a)(4) requires a detailed statement of "why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny it," only as an alternative to admitting or specifically denying the statement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4).

INTERROGATORY NO. 2

Identify each person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who has complained that the presence of a known lesbian within the 446th had, or would have a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit morale or unit discipline, and state all the facts known to defendants regarding such a complaint. When identifying each such person give their full name, rank, present duty assignment, present address, or if not known the person's last known address, any known telephone number (home and cell phone) and any known present email address (personal or military).

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 2 as objections to this interrogatory.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory because it asks two discrete questions: (i) an identification of the persons who complained of a "known lesbian" in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron and (ii) an identification of all facts known to defendants regarding such a complaint. Accordingly, this inquiry constitutes two separate interrogatories under Rule 33(a).

Defendants also object to this interrogatory as overly broad to the extent that it seeks information for time periods predating Margaret Witt's assignment to 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron.

Moreover, defendants object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks the disclosure of personal information protected by the Privacy Act.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants identify Colonel Mary Walker in response to this interrogatory based on the denial of participation memorandum and her subsequent recommendation for action.

If your response to Request for Admission No. 2 was "DENY" then respond to the following Request for Production:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 2

Produce every document which contains evidence supporting your denial.

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 2 and Interrogatory No. 2 as objections to this request for production.

Defendants further object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks sensitive information regarding the status and/or evaluation of the readiness of military forces.

Defendants also object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks documents that are outside of defendants' possession, custody, or control.

Subject to and without waiving these objections, the General Objections and any applicable privileges, defendants will produce non-privileged, non-protected responsive documents.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3

Admit or deny the truth of this statement: Defendants are unaware of the existence of any person who either currently serves, or has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who is of the opinion that the presence of a known lesbian within the 446th either in the past had, or in the future would have, a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit morale or unit discipline.

RESPONSE: Defendants object to this request for admission as unduly burdensome to the extent that it presupposes or requires information gathering that would be contrary to the chain-of-command functionality of the military and/or that would compromise unit morale and unit cohesion – Congress's stated goals underlying 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Plaintiff used the term "known lesbian." Defendants object to that term because it is vague in multiple respects, including (but not limited to) the relationship of the term to 10 U.S.C. § 654, and the basis of any of the complaints described in plaintiff's request for admission. For purposes of responding to this request for admission, defendants interpret the term to include Margaret Witt.

Defendants object to the term "negative impact" as vague, capable of multiple meanings, and potentially misleading because it is unclear whether it refers to a person's overall impact or whether it refers to the specific impact of a particular act or attribute of that person.

Defendants object to plaintiff's use of the term "unit" because it is vague and ambiguous, as to whether that term as used by plaintiff refers to only members of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron or whether it applies to other groups of military personnel who on a given assignment are required to work together as a unit.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants deny the statement.

If your response to this Request for Admission was "DENY" then pursuant to Rule 36(a)(4) state in detail why you cannot truthfully admit it and answer the following interrogatory:

OBJECTION: Defendants object to this instruction to the extent that it purports to impose an obligation that is not contained in Rule 36(a)(4). Instead, Rule 36(a)(4) requires a detailed statement of "why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny it," only as an alternative to admitting or specifically denying the statement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4).

INTERROGATORY NO. 3

Identify each person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who is of the opinion that the presence of a known lesbian within the 446th in the past had, or in the future would have, a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit moral or unit discipline, and state all the facts known to defendants regarding such opinion. When identifying each such person give their full name, rank, present duty assignment, present address, or if not known the person's last known address, any known telephone number (home and cell phone) and any known present email address (personal or military).

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 3 as objections to this interrogatory.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory because it asks two discrete questions:

(i) an identification of the persons who holds an opinion that the presence of a "known lesbian" in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron would have a negative impact on unit cohesion, unit moral or unit discipline and (ii) an identification of all facts known to defendants regarding such an opinion. Accordingly, this inquiry constitutes two separate interrogatories under Rule 33(a).

Defendants also object to this interrogatory as overly broad to the extent that it seeks information for time periods predating Margaret Witt's assignment to 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory as overly broad to the extent that it seeks "all facts known to defendants regarding such opinion."

Moreover, defendants object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks the disclosure of personal information protected by the Privacy Act.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants identify Colonel Janette Moore-Harbert and state that she is of the opinion that the presence of Margaret Witt, a known lesbian, would negatively affect unit cohesion, morale, and discipline.

If your response to Request for Admission No. 3 was "DENY" then respond to the following Request for Production:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 3

Produce every document which contains evidence supporting your denial.

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 3 and Interrogatory No. 3 as objections to this request for production.

Defendants further object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks sensitive information regarding the status and/or evaluation of the readiness of military forces.

Defendants also object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks documents that are outside of defendants' possession, custody, or control.

Subject to and without waiving these objections, the General Objections and any applicable privileges, defendants are unaware of any documents responsive to this request, i.e., that contain evidence of which persons hold opinions described in Request for Admission No. 3.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4

Admit or deny the truth of this statement: Defendants are unaware of the existence of any person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who has ever made any complaint of any kind regarding Major Witt's conduct or character.

RESPONSE: Defendants object to this request for admission as unduly burdensome to the extent that it presupposes or requires information gathering that would be contrary to the chain-of-command functionality of the military and/or that would compromise unit morale and unit cohesion – Congress's stated goals underlying 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Defendants also object to this request for admission because plaintiff's use of the term

25

27

"complaint," is vague and capable of multiple meanings. The term "complaint" could refer to on-the-job complaints, off-the-job complaints, formal complaints, informal complaints, or other varieties of complaints. Moreover, the term "complaint" is vague and unclear due to its subjectivity – a factual statement could be viewed by one person as a complaint and by another as a recitation of facts. For purposes of responding to this request for admission, defendants interpret the term "complaint" as including the denial of participation memorandum from Colonel Mary L. Walker and her subsequent recommendation for action.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants deny the statement.

If your response to the Request for Admission was "DENY" then pursuant to Rule 36(a)(4) state in detail why you cannot truthfully admit and answer the following interrogatory:

OBJECTION: Defendants object to this instruction to the extent that it purports to impose an obligation that is not contained in Rule 36(a)(4). Instead, Rule 36(a)(4) requires a detailed statement of "why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny it," only as an alternative to admitting or specifically denying the statement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4).

INTERROGATORY NO. 4

Identify each person who either currently serves, or who has previously served, in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, who has ever made any complaint of any kind regarding Major Witt's conduct or character. When identifying each such person give their full name, rank, present duty assignment, present address, or if not known the person's last known address, any known telephone number (home and cell phone) and any known present email address (personal or military).

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 4 as objections to this interrogatory.

Defendants also object to this interrogatory as overly broad to the extent that it seeks information for time periods predating Margaret Witt's assignment to 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron.

Moreover, defendants object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks the disclosure of personal information protected by the Privacy Act.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants identify Colonel Mary Walker in response to this interrogatory based on the denial of participation memorandum and her subsequent recommendation for action.

If your response to Request for Admission No. 4 was "DENY" then respond to the following Request for Production:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 4

Produce every document which contains evidence supporting your denial.

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 4 and Interrogatory No. 4 as objections to this request for production.

Defendants also object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks documents that are outside of defendants' possession, custody, or control.

Subject to and without waiving these objections, the General Objections and any applicable privileges, defendants will produce non-privileged, non-protected responsive documents.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5

Admit or deny the truth of this statement: Prohibiting members of the Air Force Reserve from having consensual sexual relations with same sex partners while off-duty, off-base, and in the privacy of their own home, does not significantly further the government's interest in maintaining good unit cohesion, unit morale and unit discipline.

RESPONSE: Defendants object to this request for admission, specifically its use of the term "prohibition," to the extent that this phrasing mischaracterizes 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Defendants object to plaintiff's use of the term "unit" because it is vague and ambiguous, as to whether that term as used by plaintiff refers to only members of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron or whether it applies to other groups of military personnel who on a given

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants state that no production is required because their response to Request for Admission No. 7 was not an admission.

If your response to Request for Admission No. 7 was "DENY" then pursuant to Rule 36(a)(4) state in detail why you cannot truthfully admit it and answer the following interrogatory:

OBJECTION: Defendants object to this instruction to the extent that it purports to impose an obligation that is not contained in Rule 36(a)(4). Instead, Rule 36(a)(4) requires a detailed statement of "why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny it," only as an alternative to admitting or specifically denying the statement. Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(4).

INTERROGATORY NO. 7(b)

Identify every person known to defendants who holds the opinion that the suspension of Major Witt from duty which occurred on November 4, 2004 had a positive impact on the morale of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron. When identifying each such person give their full name, rank, present duty assignment, present address, or if not known the person's last known address, any known telephone number (home and cell phone) and any known present email address (personal or military).

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 7 as objections to this interrogatory.

Defendants object to this interrogatory as unduly burdensome to the extent that it presupposes or requires information gathering that would be contrary to the chain-of-command functionality of the military and/or that would compromise unit morale and unit cohesion — Congress's stated goals underlying 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory's request that defendants identify "every person known to defendants" as overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent that it requires an identification of any person, however unrelated to the facts of this litigation, who holds such an opinion. Defendants likewise object to this interrogatory as inconsistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) governing the disclosure of expert testimony and the Court's pretrial scheduling order setting an expert disclosure date of March 17, 2010. Defendants also object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks to learn information protected by the work-product doctrine.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory because it asks two discrete questions: (i) the question asked in interrogatory 7(a) and (ii) the question asked in interrogatory 7(b). Accordingly, this inquiry constitutes two separate interrogatories under Rule 33(a).

Defendants object to the term "positive impact" as vague and potentially misleading because it is unclear whether it refers to a person's overall impact or whether it refers to the specific impact of a particular act or attribute of that person.

Moreover, defendants object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks the disclosure of personal information protected by the Privacy Act.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants identify Colonel Janette Moore-Harbert, who believes the suspension of Margaret Witt, as opposed to her continued presence in the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron, had a positive impact on the morale of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron.

If your response to Request for Admission No. 7 was "DENY" then respond to the following Request for Production:

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 7(b)

Produce every document which contains evidence supporting your denial.

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 7 and Interrogatory No. 7(b) as objections to this request for production.

Defendants further object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks sensitive information regarding the status and/or evaluation of the readiness of military forces.

Defendants also object to this request for production to the extent that it seeks documents that are outside of defendants' possession, custody, or control.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 9

Admit or deny the truth of this statement: The reinstatement of Major Witt to service within the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron would likely have a negative impact upon unit morale, cohesion or discipline.

RESPONSE: Defendants object to this request for admission as unduly burdensome to the extent that it presupposes or requires information gathering that would be contrary to the chain-of-command functionality of the military and/or that would compromise unit morale and unit cohesion – Congress's stated goals underlying 10 U.S.C. § 654.

Defendants object to the term "negative impact" as vague, capable of multiple meanings, and potentially misleading because it is unclear whether it refers to a person's overall impact or whether it refers to the specific impact of a particular act or attribute of that person.

Defendants object to plaintiff's use of the term "unit" because it is vague and ambiguous, as to whether that term as used by plaintiff refers to only members of the 446th Aeromedical Evacuation Squadron or whether it applies to other groups of military personnel who on a given assignment are required to work together as a unit.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants admit the statement.

If your response to this Request for Admission was "ADMIT" then answer the following interrogatory:

RESPONSE: Defendants incorporate by reference their objections to Request for Admission No. 9 as objections to this interrogatory.

Defendants further object to this interrogatory's request that defendants identify "every person known to defendants" as overly broad and unduly burdensome to the extent that it requires an identification of any person, however unrelated to the facts of this litigation, who holds such an opinion. Defendants likewise object to this interrogatory as inconsistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a) governing the disclosure of expert testimony and the Court's pretrial scheduling order setting an expert disclosure date of March 17, 2010. Defendants also object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks to learn information protected by the work-product doctrine.

Moreover, defendants object to this interrogatory to the extent that it seeks the disclosure of personal information protected by the Privacy Act.

Subject to and without waiving these objections and the General Objections, defendants identify Colonel Janette Moore-Harbert.

If your response to Request for Admission No. 9 was "ADMIT" then respond to the following Request for Production:

Hi Margie,

Long time no talk, but you have been in my thoughts often. While deployed I saw your picture and situation in the Air Force Times. It continues to aggravate me and others every time we think of you and what has happened. I hope you are doing the best you can and just continue to hang in there. I have supported the SLDN and hope it helps your case and others. As you know, my partner now works at the squadron and we get paranoid about things from time to time. We try to lay low, but I think most people know anyways.

I hope all is well and please drop me a line if you get the chance.

Take care,

Subject: Moving your deposition from the 18th

Dear Major Hansen:

Thanks for letting me know about your vacation. I certainly do not want to interfere with that, so I will consult with the attorney for the Air Force and get a different date to do your deposition. So do not worry about the March 18th date. I will see if the afternoon of March 24 or March 25 will work for everyone.

■ Jim Lobsenz

APPENDIX E

MEMORANDUM FOR REIEWING AUTHORITIES

FROM: TSgt. Leah Domenica Crawford

SUBJECT: Character Reference for Maj. Margaret Witt

My name is TSgt. Leah D. Crawford; I am an air evacuation technician with the 0446th Air Evacuation Squadron at McChord A.F.B. in Washington State. I am the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of Training in our Squadron and am also a Flight Instructor as well as a Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation Instructor. I have been in the U.S.A.F.R. since the 17th of July 1995 and have proudly served just over eleven years thus far. My responsibilities and duties with my squadron are as follows: Train new students during a standardized two week ground training program, teaching medical equipment, nursing standards, aircraft safety and systems, aircraft forms, regulations and publications, instruct students during their first few flights on the C-17, to ensure that they are ready for their evaluation check ride. I was deployed 14 March 2003 to 11 December 2003 for Operation Iraqi Freedom and was assigned to Andrews A.F.B. to set up the first Integrated Conus Movement of Patients Expeditionary Squadron. Once back from active duty I registered for the Licensed Practical Nursing program at North Seattle Community College and graduated in August 2005. I am now registered for the Licensed Practical Nurse to Registered Nurse program at Shoreline Community College starting this fall quarter 2006 and will graduate as a Registered Nurse in the fall of 2007.

It is with great pleasure that I introduce Maj. Witt as an officer that I can trust, enjoy working with and know that when working with her as a team, we will represent the U.S.A.F.R. with professionalism and high standards. I have known Maj. Witt for eight years while we both have served in the 0446th AES at McChord, and in those eight years she has taught me a great deal in regards to military standards, bearing, and professionalism as well as career enhancement, setting personal goals and being a true team player. Maj. Witt has always displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and ambition. She is definitely a leader rather than a follower. In addition to her excellent scholastic accomplishments, she has proven her leadership ability by flying as Medical Crew Director on numerous missions that I have flown with her on annual tours as well as sorties. She is also a most dependable team player; coming from the active duty side of the house, her knowledge and confidence in regulations, publications and standards resulted in the assurance of a secure and proud air evacuation medical crew each and every time that she flew. Her superb judgment and responsible outlook ensure a logical and practical approach to her endeavors. Maj. Witt is a excellent officer, has a great personality, gets along easy with, and is respected by both the enlisted and officers, and is a major asset to the military that just can not be lost.

I am aware that Maj. Witt prepares for a possible involuntary discharge for allegedly engaging in homosexual conduct and making statements that she is a homosexual. I have never seen any inappropriate conduct by Maj. Witt that would indicate she is a homosexual, nor have I heard any rumors or heard her make any inappropriate comments about being gay. In conclusion, it is my opinion that Maj. Witt should remain in the military and achieve her goal to retire with honor, integrity and justice.
