UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN WASHINGTON

MAJOR MARGARET WITT,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF
THE AIR FORCE; ET AL.,

Defendants.

No. C06-5195 RBL

DECLARATION OF SHER KUNG IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS RESPONSIVE TO
REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION
NOS. 33 TO 36.

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
MAY 28, 2010

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I, Sher Kung, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am counsel for the plaintiff and have personal knowledge of the facts contained in this Declaration.

2. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of an excerpt of Plaintiff's Second Set of Requests for Production of Documents and Things to Defendants.

3. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of a letter dated April 23, 2010, from Sarah Dunne to Bryan Diederich, including the attachment to the letter—a draft Stipulation and Order that would govern disclosure of any confidential personnel and medical records in this litigation.

1           4.     Attached hereto as Exhibit C are true and correct copies of excerpts from the
2 deposition of Captain Jill Robinson, dated March 16, 2010.

3           5.     Attached hereto as Exhibit D are true and correct copies of excerpts from the 4 deposition of Captain Edmond Hrivnak, dated March 17, 2010.

5           6.     Attached hereto as Exhibit E are true and correct copies of excerpts from the 6 deposition of Colonel Janette Moore-Harbert, dated February 25, 2010.

7           7.     Attached hereto as Exhibit F is a true and correct copy of an excerpt of 8 Defendants' Objections and Responses to Plaintiff's Second Set of Requests for Production of 9 Documents and Things.

10          8.     On April 13, 2010, government counsel, Sarah Dunne and I participated in a
11 telephone conference concerning Defendants' Objections and Responses to Plaintiff's Second
12 Set of Requests. Government counsel restated their position that the Privacy Act contains no
13 exception permitting disclosure of the requested documents.

14          9.     On May 10, 2010, government counsel, Sarah Dunne and I participated in a 15 telephonic meet and confer and government counsel conceded that there is a provision in the 16 Privacy Act which allows for the release of Privacy Act information upon court order.
17 Government counsel however confirmed that their client was unwilling to agree to a Stipulation
18 and Order governing the handling of the documents requested here. The government stated that 19 their client still maintained the position that the Privacy Act protects personnel files from 20 disclosure. Government counsel also stated that they shared our interest in handling confidential
21 documents in a careful manner.

22          10.    Attached hereto as Exhibit G is a true and correct copy of a letter dated May 11,
23 2010, from Sarah Dunne to Bryan Diederich, memorializing the May 10 conversation.

24          I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this 25 Declaration was executed on May 13, 2010 in Seattle, Washington.

KATHLEEN TAYLOR

Re: Witt v. U.S. Air Force et al., No. C06-5195 (W.D. Wash.)

Dear Bryan,

I am writing concerning Defendants' refusal to produce any personnel files pursuant to Requests Nos. 33 to 36 set forth in Plaintiff's Second Set of Requests for Production of Documents. Requests for Production Nos. 33 through 36 request the personnel files of SM-A, SM-B, SM-C, and SM-E.

Defendants cite to the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, to justify their claim that these files are protected from disclosure. We discussed your objection briefly during our April 13 conference call in which government counsel stated that the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, contained no exception permitting disclosure of the requested documents. A review of the language of the Privacy Act and the relevant case law, however, establishes that this representation is incorrect.

It is well-established that the Privacy Act provides no bar to the disclosure of information in discovery during the course of litigation. See, e.g., Laxalt v. McClatchy, 809 F.2d 885, 888-89 (D.C. Cir. 1987); Weahkee v. Norton, 621 F.2d 1080, 1082-83 (10th Cir. 1980); Hassan v. United States, 2006 WL 681038 *2 (W.D. Wash. 2006). Indeed, the plain language of 5 U.S. C. § 552a(b)(11) permits disclosure pursuant to court order. Laxalt, 809 F. 2d at 888. In reality, "a party can invoke discovery of materials protected by the Privacy Act through the normal discovery process and according to the usual discovery standards, and the test of discoverability is the relevance standard of Rule 26(b)(1) of the [Federal Rules of Civil Procedure]." Hassan, 2006 WL 681038, at *2 (quoting Laxalt, 809 F.2d at 889).

Because the Privacy Act provides no basis for Defendants' refusal to produce the documents requested in Requests for Production Nos. 33 through 36, we renew our requests. On April 13, we agreed to limit Requests for Production Nos. 33, 34, and 35 to documents pertaining to disciplinary action or admonishment, rather than the entire personnel files. We still stand by this agreement. With respect to Request No. 36, we narrow our request to seek all documents (including emails) showing SM-E supervisors are aware of E relationship with another servicemember named SM-F, including all documents of such nature contained within SM-E personnel file. Stated simply, we believe the documents we seek are relevant to this litigation pursuant to Rule 26(b)(1) and we are willing to agree to a protective order governing the use and disclosure of such confidential records during this litigation.

Letter to DOJ
April 23, 2010

Included with this letter is a draft of a Stipulation & Order (in essence a protective order) that would govern any confidential personnel and medical records disclosed during this litigation and protect against improper disclosure to the general public. Please let me know if you agree to this protective order and whether you have any revisions to the proposed Stipulation & Order.

Sincerely,

Sarah A. Dunne
Legal Director

Honorable Ronald B. Leighton

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA DIVISION

MAJOR MARGARET WITT,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE AIR FORCE; ET AL.,

Defendants.

No. C06-5195 RBL

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO PROTECT CONFIDENTIALITY OF
DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION

I. STIPULATION

Pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the parties, by and through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate that certain discovery material be treated as confidential and respectfully ask the Court enter an Order as follows:

1. The Complaint of Plaintiff involves Plaintiff's claims of unlawful discharge from United States Air Force in violation of the United States Constitution. Defendants deny these claims.

2. It is necessary for the parties to produce through discovery in this lawsuit confidential records, which are entitled to protection against improper disclosure to the general public.

1 (e) Defendants, and all managing agents and employees of the agency
2 Defendant, who become involved in this litigation at the request of counsel of record and whose 3 review of protected documents is specifically controlled by counsel;

4 (f) Potential witnesses who become involved in this litigation at the 5 request of counsel of record and whose review of protected documents is specifically controlled
6 by counsel;

7 (g) Experts or consultants employed by counsel of record for the 8 purpose of assisting in these proceedings, preparation for trial, and/or trial of this action.

9 5. The parties shall designate records as confidential information by placing the 10 following legend on any such record prior to production: "CONFIDENTIAL." In the event that 11 any party inadvertently fails to designate a record as confidential information at the time of its 12 production, they shall have five business days after discovery of such error to so designate the 13 record.

14 6. All documents designated as confidential, and all information derived therefrom,
15 shall be used solely for the purpose of preparing and litigating claims in this action and shall not 16 be disclosed, directly or indirectly, or published in any medium by any party, or disseminated
17 except to qualified persons.

18 7. Any party to this action may proffer into evidence confidential information at 19 time of trial or by motion or otherwise and such confidential information may be introduced or 20 shown to jurors and witnesses at the time of trial or on motion of any party, subject to normal
21 evidentiary objections. In the event that any material designated as confidential is used in any 22 court proceeding in this action, it shall not lose its confidential status through such use, and the 23
24

1 party using such confidential material shall maintain its confidentiality during such use, subject
2 to the Court's guidance.

3 8. Any party filing with the Court confidential information must file a stipulation and 4 proposed order to seal or motion to seal consistent with Local Civil Rule 5(g).

5 9. Any deposition testimony deemed to contain confidential information shall be 6 brought within the protection of this Order by orally designating on the deposition record the 7 protected portion or portions or, within ten (10) business days of receipt of the transcript, by 8 designating such portions by page and line number.

9 10. The designating party shall have the burden of proof regarding the confidential
10 nature of designated documents and/or information.

11 11. The parties shall resolve any disputes concerning the designation of any 12 documents as "CONFIDENTIAL" as follows: the non-designating party shall challenge any 13 designation of confidentiality by notifying the designating party in writing, specifically
14 identifying the challenged item(s) as well as the basis for the challenge. If the parties cannot 15 resolve the challenge after engaging in good-faith discussions, the designating party shall seek an 16 order of the Court with respect to the challenged information, documents, or things designated as 17 "CONFIDENTIAL." Both Plaintiff and Defendants will treat all materials or information
18 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" in accordance with the requirements of this Order for a 19 reasonable period after notice of a challenge to confidentiality and during the pendency of related 20 motions.

21 12. Disclosure of confidential information and confidential documents may be made
22 only to "qualified persons" as defined above, with the following additional limitations:
24

20. This Order is without prejudice to any party's right to demand or oppose discovery on any grounds permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and is without prejudice to any other party's right to contest any such assertions.

21. Insofar as the provisions of this Order restrict the use of confidential information, this Stipulation and Order shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this litigation.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED this ___ day of April, 2010.

1 but I don't -- I haven't seen since left.

2 Q Did you ever hear anyone in the unit complain that they
3 were serving with believed to be ?

4 A No.

5 Q Did you ever hear anyone complain that they were serving
6 with , assumed to be ?

7 A No.

8 Q No?

9 A Odd behaviors. was just a quirky and but there
10 wasn't...

11 Q Let's see, did you say, did have a partner?

12 A I did not say. I don't know if did.

13 Q And after break up of marriage, do
14 you know whether had a partner or not?

15 A No.

16 Q Now, aside from those three people,
17 , there's some other people who
18 are still in; is that correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Who you believe to be gay or lesbian; right?

21 A Correct.

22 Q First of all, just how many in numbers, other people is 23 that group in your mind?

24 A Six.

25 Q Six. Okay. And of those six, how many are gay men and

1 with partner, or... Yeah.

2 Q How did you first learn about the alleged domestic
3 violence incident?

4 A I saw bruises on SM-D arm.

5 Q Did then did you ask SM-D about that?

6 A Yes.

7 Q What did SM-D say?

8 A Myself and Leslie Pellegrini were in the office and 9 asking D about it, and D stated that D fine,
10 that D was fine. And bruises were there. And it came 11 back to be centered on SM-C that had caused the 12 bruises. And then from there, I believe what was 13 transpired was there ended up being an exercise that 14 went overseas to Hawaii that the majority of the 15 squadron went on, and then at that point somebody had 16 stated that I had gone in and up-channeled information
17 related to SM-C up the chain of the Air Force. And 18 SM-C approached me about it asking why. And I had no
19 part of up-channeling of any information. So... There
20 was an accusation made that I had turned C in, I had 21 access to Col. Moore-Harbert's office while C was gone
22 as the commander on this deployment and floated this 23 upward.

24 Q So, is this right, SM-C basically approached you,
25 approached you and accused you of outing C ?

1 A Yes.

2 Q You said that it began with a discussion I guess
3 somewhere in the building in the office about bruises.
4 At that point, did you know prior to that day that
5 SM-C lived with SM-D ?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Prior to that day, did you believe SM-C and SM-D to 8 be having a relationship?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And I take it that's something SM-C never told you;
11 right? C never said, "I am . . . " ?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And SM-D never said, "I am . . . " ?

14 A Correct.

15 Q But it's something you believed?

16 A Correct.

17 Q Prior to this day that you saw the bruises on
18 SM-D , did you know anything about how SM-C
19 and SM-D had come to be together?

20 A I believe it was started as, I believe -- and this is
21 where I can be wrong, that it was on a deployment
22 overseas.

23 Q That they met?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Had you ever been to their house that they shared?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Had you been to their house prior to there domestic
3 violence incident?

4 A Yes.

5 Q One thing I didn't understand is you mentioned something
6 about an exercise that the whole unit was on, an
7 exercise; is that what you said?

8 A Yes. There was -- I forgot the -- I don't remember the 9 name of it. But it was over in Hawaii. And so
10 Col. Moore-Harbert was over there along with many other
11 people. And there was only a few people in the squadron
12 back here just coming in to do their requirements.

13 Q So, I don't understand. What happened while you were in 14 Hawaii that's related to this?

15 A I wasn't in Hawaii. I was at the squadron.

16 Q Okay.

17 A And so what came back was while I was at the squadron,
18 SM-C was also there, and all doing our own independent
19 things. And then I got a call while I was at home from 20 C stating that information had gotten back to people
21 in Hawaii that I had up-channeled information.

22 Q Oh, I see.

23 A And so, I -- Yeah, I spent a good couple hours talking
24 to SM-C about it, and I don't...

25 Q So, at this point, when most of the unit is in Hawaii,

- 1 you and SM-C are not in Hawaii?
- 2 A Correct.
- 3 Q And when you're saying you spent a couple hours talking
- 4 to SM-C, is that in person or over the phone?
- 5 A Over the phone.
- 6 Q I take it in this conversation SM-C is upset?
- 7 A Yes.
- 8 Q Angry at you?
- 9 A Maybe. Confused. Not understanding why I got
- 10 information.
- 11 Q And because you're the executive assistant, you have
- 12 access to the commander's desk; is that right?
- 13 A I do not.
- 14 Q You do not?
- 15 A I do not.
- 16 Q But SM-C thought you did?
- 17 A Correct. Or there was, there was a belief assumed that
- 18 I did, therefore I was the one that was responsible for
- 19 the information getting out there, and that I had
- 20 up-channeled it.
- 21 Q So, you told C I take it, "I did not up-channel
- 22 it. I did not tell Moore-Harbert anything"?
- 23 A I -- Right. I mean, Col. Moore-Harbert was over there,
- 24 and I went through the whole explanation of my access,
- 25 my inability to get access to that information. I don't

- 1 have access to her office. Don't have access to the 2 information that C thought was forwarded upward.
- 3 Q So, you told SM-C this?
- 4 A Correct.
- 5 Q And what did C say?
- 6 A I felt as though I lost a friendship.
- 7 Q Did C say whether C believed you or not when you
8 said, "I didn't do this"?
- 9 A No, I don't believe that C actually said anything. It
10 was a matter of I was put in a place to convince.
- 11 Q Then what happened?
- 12 A I spoke to Col. Moore-Harbert about it when she got 13 back --
- 14 Q What did --
- 15 A -- and asked her to explain it to C, that I don't 16 have this information.
- 17 Q And was she willing to do that?
- 18 A Yes.
- 19 Q Did she do that?
- 20 A I believe she did.
- 21 Q What makes you say you believe that she spoke to --
- 22 A -- because I was there when the three of us talked.
- 23 Q So --
- 24 A -- And so it was explained in C office that while this 25 allegation was there, that I wasn't the source, that I

1 didn't have access.

2 Q Did Col. Moore-Harbert explain what was the source of 3 her information?

4 A No.

5 Q Did she mention the police report?

6 A The police report was part of what the source was, but I
7 don't recall her actually explaining it to SM-C about 8 the specific police report. I remember the 9 conversations that when reports come through with 10 domestic violence and the police officers arrive at the 11 house and they're military, it still gets crossed over 12 to the military side. So, that I recall is information,
13 and so...

14 Q That information that the police share their reports
15 with the military, was that information, did it come
16 from Col. Moore-Harbert or someone else?

17 A I believe it came from Col. Moore-Harbert.

18 Q In this three-person conversation, did you form an 19 opinion as to whether SM-C was convinced that you were 20 not the person who outed C ?

21 A I don't think C ever be convinced.

22 Q You don't?

23 A (Non-verbal negative response.)

24 Q So, did it permanently damage the friendship?

25 A Uh-huh.

1 Q You said at one point, SM-A was the
2 commander of the unit; correct?

3 A Correct.

4 Q A was succeeded by ; correct?

5 A Correct.

6 Q What's your understanding of why SM-A was 7 replaced by ?

8 A I think it's multi-faceted.

9 Q Okay.

10 A I believe part of it may be time. I believe another
11 component was A commanded the squadron and gave 12 special privileges to A executive officer related to 13 time and flexible hours and a perception that -- B was 14 married. SM-B is B name. SM-B is 15 married but would ride in with SM-A in the 16 morning and take A home. They would go to lunches
17 together. It was just, it was... It was a dirty
18 feeling. It wasn't -- didn't seem appropriate. So,
19 over time, it got to be suffocating for us to watch, so
20 a group of us that were present from different AFCs went
21 across to Command, across the street to 446, and I
22 believe it was Col. Spencer at the time, and had a
23 sit-down discussion about the perceptions and impact
24 that it had and the angst it had on the squadron.

25 Q It did have an effect on the squadron?

DEPOSITION UPON ORAL EXAMINATION OF EDMOND HRIVNAK

APPEARANCES:

FOR THE PLAINTIFF: JAMES E. LOBSENZ
CARNEY, BADLEY, SPELLMAN

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98104

FOR THE DEFENDANTS: PETER J. PHIPPS

MARCH 17, 2010

1 you're talking five years ago.

2 Q So, let's talk about May 2005 when you really left the 3 unit.

4 A Yeah.

5 Q How many gays and lesbians combined?

6 A Well, I didn't keep count.

7 MR. PHIPPS: Objection. Foundation.

8 MR. LOBSENZ: That's okay.

9 A I didn't keep count, but I would guess six to eight gays
10 and lesbians.

11 Q I'm not at this moment anyway, asking you for any names,
12 okay?

13 A Okay.

14 Q But just at this moment what proportion of that six to 15 eight or so, is it evenly divided men and women, do you
16 think it's more one gender than the other, what?

17 A I would say, yeah, more female than male. I mean, we're 18 a medical unit, so there's generally more females than 19 males.

20 Q Okay.

21 A So, just the numbers?

22 Q Okay.

23 A And so I would say six female lesbians, two gay men.

24 Q Are any of the people that you believe are gay or 25 lesbian now presently retired from the Air Force?

1 A and I deployed together in 2003.

2 Q I am informed, as of yesterday anyway that
3 retired?

4 A Okay. That's news to me.

5 Q So, with that preface I'm going to ask you did you have
6 a suspicion that was when you served
7 with ?

8 A No. That's also news to me.

9 Q Did you at some point hear about some kind of argument,
10 altercation between SM-C and
11 SM-D ?

12 A Not firsthand.

13 Q What do you mean by "not firsthand"? Did you hear about 14 it secondhand? I don't...

15 A Gosh, who told me? You know, I heard third person that 16 they were dating and that they were living together.
17 And the only reason that I would remember this is 18 because SM-C deployed with me in 2003, and 19 was on another med-evac crew. We were at the same
20 squadron, and I know that, that that person was also 21 over there in another squadron; that's how they met was 22 on a deployment.

23 Q That person, meaning the person C dating?

24 A Yeah, the person C dating, because they had met --
25 Because when I was told there was an altercation, they

1 were living together. "Gosh, I know that name
2 somewhere." "Of course you do. That person was
3 deployed when you guys were overseas." That's the only
4 reason that sticks in the memory, otherwise I probably 5 would have forgotten the whole conversation.

6 Q Make any difference to you that apparently SM-C
7 was ?

8 A No, because C was in charge of a combat crew over
9 there, and C actually evac'd more casualties and flew
10 more combat missions than I did. And, in fact, after I
11 left the 446 C volunteered for duty again on several
12 occasions and now has cared for thousands of casualties
13 from both wars and probably puts my military record to 14 shame. And I personally know that the CCATT person that 15 C was dating -- Critical Care Transport Team -- I had 16 a particular patient that was critically short of 17 breath. And I could not figure out in flight why this 18 person was short of breath. And the CCATT team was on 19 the aircraft with me. SM-D ?

20 Q Apparently you don't know the name ( SM-D but 21 you know that there is this CCATT person that was 22 dating --

23 A -- I'm having trouble. This was a long time ago. There
24 was a lot of missions and a lot of casualties, but I
25 remember going to SM-D and going to D team and

1 Q Okay. So, does this change? I mean, I think earlier
2 today you said something about you didn't realize that
3 Maj. Witt had brought a lawsuit. Is there a difference
4 in your mind between a case and a lawsuit?

5 A See, I never made the connection between case, lawsuit.
6 To me I heard "don't talk about a case;" I thought it
7 was just Margie trying to get reinstated in the 8 military. I never asked.

9 Q Do you know whether it was the commander or not who made
10 this comment about don't talk about it?

11 A No, I honestly can't recall.

12 Q Did you say that you had served for some period of time
13 under SM-A ?

14 A Correct.

15 Q Do you know why SM-A retired?

16 A No.

17 Q At some point in time, do you remember members of the 18 unit making complaints about SM-A behavior
19 with another member of the unit?

20 A Yeah. Actually found out after the fact, because 21 several of the enlisted under my commanding op' section
22 had made comments about, I'm not going to call it an 23 affair because I have no firsthand knowledge. But under
24 the UCMJ I would definitely call it an unprofessional
25 relationship with SM-A and SM-B the

1 executive officer. It got to the point -- And, again,
2 it was affecting my morale, too, their behavior with
3 each other. I mean, they were, they were glued at the 4 hip. I mean, constantly together. That it didn't
5 matter if they were having an affair or not, that's 6 irrelevant. Under the UCMJ, the perception of an
7 unprofessional relationship is enough justification
8 under the UCMJ that the superior officer should take 9 action. So, after quite a bit of time of this, I went
10 over and formally complained to the Op's group commander
11 Col. Brian Spencer that we have a morale issue, esprit
12 de corps issue, because of the conduct of our commander
13 and executive officer. He asked me, "Are they having an 14 affair?" I said, "I don't know; it doesn't matter if
15 they're having an affair, it's an unprofessional
16 relationship and affecting morale, and I feel like you
17 need to do something about it." I had no idea that the 18 enlisted had come in on their own and had talked to him
19 also. I found this out four months after the fact that 20 that had occurred.

21 Q So, he, Col. Spencer did not mention to you at that time
22 that he'd already had complaints from enlisted
23 personnel?

24 A No, I don't recall. I may have spoken to him first. I
25 honestly don't know. Please don't ask me for a date,

MARIE WHITE, CSR # WH-IT-EM-*29906

1 crosses your mind to think this person probably is of
2 this sexual orientation. In thirty-two years other
3 than Major Witt have you ever suspected any other
4 person in the Armed Forces to be gay or lesbian?

5 MR. PHIPPS: Objection, characterization and 6 form.

7 A. I don't know.

8 Q. You don't remember ever suspecting any such person?

9 MR. PHIPPS: Objection, vague.

10 A. My focus is I focus on the fact that I try to keep 11 myself professional. I am not interested in finding 12 out.

13 Q. I am not asking if you're interested.

14 A. And from the standpoint of I don't lead myself down
15 that line of trying to say I am going to suspect one
16 way or the other.

17 Q. So are you saying that you actively prevent yourself
18 from considering the possibility whenever you meet
19 anyone, you just don't want to consider it?

20 A. I don't think that is an important avenue unless it
21 brought to me specifically against that criteria that 22 we discussed with the military.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. That there is a concern.

25 Q. How about outside the military?

- 1 A. That's correct. It is a fraternization issue.
- 2 Q. Does it cross your mind that they were having a sexual
3 relationship?
- 4 A. Did it cross my mind?
- 5 Q. Yes.
- 6 A. No, my focus was fraternization.
- 7 Q. It didn't cross your mind?
- 8 A. My focus was fraternization.
- 9 Q. Did it cross your mind?
- 10 A. My focus was fraternization.
- 11 Q. Did it cross your mind that they were having a sexual 12 relationship?
- 13 I don't care what your focus was.
- 14 Did it cross your mind?
- 15 A. No, because my issue was fraternization.
- 16 Q. Okay, and did you learn how they came to be living 17 together?
- 18 A. I had someone that I actually had initiation of what 19 was called a command directive investigation on the 20 issue of fraternization. And I don't know how they 21 came together. The issue was the fact that the 22 fraternization issue of the two of them renting, one
23 renting from the other, the officer and the enlisted,
24 was inappropriate.
- 25 Q. Didn't you learn that -- what is the name of the other

- 1 woman? It was SM-C and the other woman was?
- 2 A. SM-D .
- 3 Q. SM-D ?
- 4 A. That's correct?
- 5 Q. Did you learn how where SM-D had been
- 6 before she was with the 446th?
- 7 A. No.
- 8 Q. You never learned that?
- 9 A. She was -- she came into our squadron as a [REDACTED]
- 10 [REDACTED]. And the only thing in that I knew
- 11 was that she was also what is called a [REDACTED]
- 12 [REDACTED].
- 13 Q. You didn't learn why she came and transferred to the
- 14 446th?
- 15 A. No, I was unaware why she came, she came over and was
- 16 hired as the [REDACTED].
- 17 Q. So no one ever suggested to you that she came in order
- 18 to live with SM-C ?
- 19 A. Nope.
- 20 Q. Okay. Did you discipline either of these people?
- 21 A. Yes, I did.
- 22 Q. Who did you discipline?
- 23 A. I gave SM-C , it's SM-C now, a
- 24 Letter of Admonishment for the fraternization issue.
- 25 And SM-D got a Letter of Counseling.

1 A. He confirmed fraternization.

2 Q. That is not what I am asking.

3 A. I don't have the Police Report in front of me. He
4 confirmed fraternization.

5 Q. Okay. To you that means that he confirmed they lived
6 together in the same house?

7 A. He confirmed that an officer and an enlisted were 8 living together.

9 Q. Anything else he confirmed?

10 A. Not in the CDI.

11 Q. Did he confirm they had a domestic incident?

12 A. I don't have the report in front of me to be able to 13 refer to.

14 Q. Who did he interview?

15 MR. PHIPPS: Objection, foundation.

16 A. Again I don't have the report.

17 Q. You don't remember who he interviewed?

18 A. It more than likely would have been the parties
19 involved. But I don't have it in front of me.

20 Q. Okay. And after you got the report did you at that 21 point have any reason to suspect that either one of 22 these women was a lesbian?

23 A. Suspect based off of the criteria that we talked about 24 suspect?

25 Q. Suspect the way that I have consistently asked you the

- 1 question about suspect. Did it cross your mind?
- 2 A. And in this particular instance, I am using suspect
3 based off of the criteria.
- 4 Q. Okay, but I'm not. I'm asking you after you read this 5 report did it cross your mind?
- 6 A. I don't know.
- 7 Q. SM-C is still with the unit?
- 8 A. Yes, she is.
- 9 Q. Did this incident cause in your opinion any morale
10 problems in the unit?
- 11 A. I don't know that the information went out in the unit
12 regarding this. This is not something that we will 13 discuss --
- 14 Q. You think nobody else knows it?
- 15 A. I have no idea. I don't go out and tell the unit of 16 the incident?
- 17 Q. So you have no sense of whether anyone else in the unit 18 knows about it?
- 19 A. That's correct.
- 20 Q. When you gave the Letter of Admonishment to 21 SM-C was anyone else present?
- 22 A. There was. I can't remember who it was.
- 23 Q. Did you instruct whoever it was to keep it secret and 24 not tell anyone?
- 25 A. Well, it's an action that occurs between a Commander

1 Defendants object to Request for Production No. 32 as overly broad and unduly
2 burdensome insofar as it apparently seeks any communication of any sort, even a forwarded
3 newspaper article, referring to studies about homosexuals in the military. Defendants object to 4 Request for Production No. 32 as overly broad and unduly burdensome insofar as it is not limited
5 as to time, potentially calling for the production of decades-old documents not germane to 6 Plaintiff's circumstances. Defendants object to Request for Production No. 32 as calling for 7 materials protected from disclosure by the deliberative process privilege. The military is in the 8 process of conducting a review of the statute and regulations at issue in this matter. Requiring 9 the Government to produce materials associated with that review impermissibly interferes with 10 the Executive Branch's deliberative process. Finally, Defendants object to Request for 11 Production No. 32 as overly broad and unduly burdensome insofar as it purports to require the 12 production of documents maintained outside of the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Office
13 of the Secretary of the Air Force, or the 446th AES. Defendants further object to Request for 14 Production No. 32 as unduly burdensome and overly broad to the extent that it seeks documents
15 without limitation to time frame. Defendants object to producing documents dated prior to 2004.

16 Subject to, and without waiving, their objections, Defendants state that they have
17 conducted a reasonable search for documents responsive to Request No. 32 and will produce
18 responsive, non-privileged documents.

19 Request for Production No. 33: Produce SM-A personnel file and all
20 documents pertaining to disciplinary action or admonishment concerning A relationship with 21 SM-B.

22 RESPONSE: Defendants object to Request for Production No. 33 as calling for the production
23 of materials protected from disclosure by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. Defendants further
24 object to Request for Production No. 33 as unduly burdensome to the government as it is not
25 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The actual or purported
26 relationships of other members of Plaintiff's unit have no bearing on Plaintiff's effect on unit
27 morale and cohesion, the sole facts at issue in this matter as remanded from the Ninth Circuit.

28 In light of these objections, Defendants decline to produce documents in response to

1 Request for Production No. 33.

2 Request for Production No. 34: Produce SM-B personnel file and all
3 documents pertaining to discipline and admonishment regarding B relationship with SM-A

5 RESPONSE: Defendants object to Request for Production No. 34 as calling for the production
6 of materials protected from disclosure by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. Defendants further
7 object to Request for Production No. 34 as unduly burdensome to the government as it is not
8 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The actual or purported
9 relationships of other members of Plaintiff's unit have no bearing on Plaintiff's effect on unit
10 morale and cohesion, the sole facts at issue in this matter as remanded from the Ninth Circuit.

11 In light of these objections, Defendants decline to produce documents in response to
12 Request for Production No. 34.

13 Request for Production No. 35: Produce SM-C personnel file and all
14 documents relating to C relationship with SM-D

15 RESPONSE: Defendants object to Request for Production No. 35 as calling for the production
16 of materials protected from disclosure by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. Defendants further
17 object to Request for Production No. 35 as unduly burdensome to the government as it is not
18 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The actual or purported
19 relationships of other members of Plaintiff's unit have no bearing on Plaintiff's effect on unit
20 morale and cohesion, the sole facts at issue in this matter as remanded from the Ninth Circuit.

21 In light of these objections, Defendants decline to produce documents in response to
22 Request for Production No. 35.

23 Request for Production No. 36: Produce SM-E personnel file and all
24 documents pertaining to E relationship with SM-F

25 RESPONSE: Defendants object to Request for Production No. 36 as calling for the production
26 of materials protected from disclosure by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a. Defendants further
27 object to Request for Production No. 36 as unduly burdensome to the government as it is not
28 reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The actual or purported

1 relationships of other members of Plaintiff's unit have no bearing on Plaintiff's effect on unit
2 morale and cohesion, the sole facts at issue in this matter as remanded from the Ninth Circuit.

3 In light of these objections, Defendants decline to produce documents in response to
4 Request for Production No. 36.

5 Request for Production No. 37: Produce the Unit Manning Documents for the 446th AES for 6 the years 2002 through 2007.

7 Defendants state that they have conducted a reasonable search for documents responsive
8 to Request No. 37 and will produce responsive, non-privileged documents.

9 Request for Production No. 38: Produce all documents created, collected, obtained, produced
10 or maintained, concerning the 446th AES, by MSgt Aaron W. Maness, the unit historian and in 11 his role as the unit historian, from 2000 to 2006.

12 RESPONSE: Defendants object to Request for Production No. 38 as overly broad, unduly 13 burdensome and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The 14 history of 446th AES is not defined entirely by Plaintiff, her discharge, and the military's policy
15 with respect to homosexuals. Defendants will limit their search for responsive documents to 16 those relating to Plaintiff and/or her discharge.

17 Subject to, and without waiving, their objections, Defendants state that they have
18 conducted a reasonable search for documents responsive to Request No. 38 and will produce
19 responsive, non-privileged documents.

Re: Witt v. U.S. Air Force et al., No. C06-5195 (W.D. Wash.)

Dear Bryan and Steve,

Thank you for the productive phone conference yesterday concerning Defendants' Objections and Responses to Plaintiff's Second Set of Requests for Production of Documents and Things. I am writing to confirm our understanding of the agreements we reached yesterday relating to certain outstanding discovery matters.

Requests Nos. 1-8, 10 and 11

First, we asked about Defendants' ongoing efforts to respond to Requests for Production Nos. 1-8, 10 and 11. Our understanding is that you tasked an Information Technology (IT) group at Joint Base Lewis-McChord to run a search on the local server for the 446th AES for responsive documents, that some documents were found, and that DOJ will have an opportunity to review those documents and produce any responsive documents in the next week. We further understand that you have tasked an IT group located at a separate military base that has access to the 446th AES server at a different level to re-run similar searches to identify responsive documents. The target date for completion of this search is the end of this week with any responsive documents being produced shortly thereafter on a rolling basis. Finally, you also mentioned that because you suspect that reservists may not use their military email accounts regularly due to the infrequency of being on base, DOJ has tasked a JAG officer to call and speak with members directly to ask about their use of private email accounts. If members confirm that they do in fact use other services such as gmail or yahoo, the JAG officer will ask them to run a search with specific key terms in order to identify responsive documents. All responsive, non-privileged documents will be produced on a rolling basis, but no later than June 7.

Second, we asked whether Defendants, key decision makers (such as Generals Jumper, Dguinan or Sherrard), and 446th unit members with relevant knowledge about Major Witt's suspension and discharge were asked to retain any files or documents concerning Major Witt's suspension and discharge via a litigation hold, either in writing or by oral instruction. Our understanding from you is that the Air Force has never given such an instruction either orally or in writing to Defendants, key decision makers, and 446th unit members with relevant knowledge about Major Witt's suspension and discharge. Thus, no litigation holds were put in place to prevent the destruction of documents that may have been relevant to Major Witt's suspension or discharge.

Based on your representation that DOJ is conducting a search for documents responsive to Requests Nos 1-8, 10 and 11 and will produce any remaining responsive documents on or before June 7, coupled with the absence of litigation holds, Plaintiff will not file a motion to compel with respect to these particular Requests because such a motion has no purpose if there are no documents remaining, either because they were destroyed or because they do not exist. Instead, Plaintiff may seek remedial relief relating to spoliation of evidence from the Court at a later date.

Request Nos. 25 and 31

We also discussed Request for Production No. 25 and you confirmed that Defendants have produced all responsive, non-privileged documents subject to any supplemental production pursuant to Rule 26(e). With respect to Request for Production No. 31, Defendants initially objected to the request for "all public statements made by the Defendants" concerning "U.S. Armed Forces personnel and sexual orientation or sexual conduct between two people of the same sex" on the basis that the materials are equally available to both parties because the documents were at some point in the public domain (either via a speech presented in a public forum or available on the Internet). To confirm whether Plaintiff has all responsive documents, I agreed that Plaintiff's counsel will search for any documents responsive to Request No. 31 available over the internet and produce the same; DOJ will contact the Department of Defense press office to confirm whether any responsive documents other than the ones produced by Plaintiff exist and if so, Defendants will produce those additional responsive documents.

Request Nos. 33-36

With respect to Requests for Production Nos. 33-36, we understand that your client is unwilling to agree to a protective order, and objects to the production of members' personnel files, in whole or in part, based on the Privacy Act. Parties agree that Plaintiff will file a motion to compel on the above document requests, and will redact members' names in order to maintain privacy.
