3 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
4 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
5 AT TACOMA

6 JAMES EDWARD CURTIS,

7 Plaintiff,

8 v.

9 TERRY J. BENDA, et al.,

10 Defendants.

CASE NO. C08-5109 BHS

ORDER

11
12 This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff James Edward Curtis's ("Curtis")
13 motion for extension of time to file objections to the Magistrate Judge's report and
14 recommendations ("R&R") (Dkt. 261), motion for leave to file over-length objections
15 (Dkt. 262), and motion to stay all proceedings (Dkt. 265).

16 On August 29, 2012, the Court granted Curtis's motion for an extension of time to 17 file objections to the report and recommendation. Dkt. 256. Curtis then requested a stay
18 of all proceedings because he was being transferred and was unsure whether his legal 19 material will be transferred as well. Dkt. 257. The Court concluded that Curtis failed to 20 show good cause for a complete stay of this proceeding (Dkt. 260) and concludes that he
21 again fails to do so in his current motion (Dkt. 265). Accordingly, his motion to stay all
22 proceedings (Dkt. 265) is DENIED.

1 In addition, Curtis seeks an additional extension of time of 60 days to file
2 objections to the R&R. The Court concludes that the motion for extension of time is
3 GRANTED to the extent that Curtis will be afforded an additional 30 days, to which
4 Defendants are not opposed, to file his objections to the R&R.

5 Finally, Curtis seeks leave of the Court to file overlength objections to the R&R
6 on his motion for 56(d) continuance. The Court RESERVES RULING on the motion
7 for leave in that the Court will decide what portion of the almost 300 pages of material is
8 relevant to the Court's ruling on the R&R.

9 Accordingly, the R&R (Dkt. 249) and Curtis's motion to file overlength objections
10 (Dkt. 262) are RENOTED to November 5, 2012.

11 IT IS SO ORDERED.

12 Dated this 15th day of October, 2012
