STIPULATION AND ORDER
DISMISSING CLAIMS AGAINST
NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY WITH PREJUDICE AND DISCHARGING LIABILITY
REGARDING PAYMENT OR DISTRIBUTION OF INTERPLEADED FUNDS

I. STIPULATION

This is a stipulation by and between plaintiff-in-interpleader New York Life Insurance Company (“New York Life”), defendant-in-interpleader Michael Powell and defendants-in-interpleader Charles Cox, Judy Cox and Charles and Judy Cox as Special Administrators for the Estate of Susan Powell (“Cox Defendants”) for the purpose of dismissing all claims with prejudice by Michael Powell and the Cox Defendants against New York Life related to benefits payable under two life insurance policies (numbers 48789237 and 48789198) and associated children’s term riders issued by New York Life to Joshua Powell and Susan Powell (“Insurance

1 Policies”), the disbursement of the interpleaded funds, or the handling of this claim.

2 All known interested parties have been served with this interpleader action.
3 Furthermore, New York Life has deposited the proceeds of the Insurance Policies, plus interest,
4 with this Court for a determination of the rights as between the defendants-in-interpleader.
5 New York Life makes no claim and has no interest in the deposited funds or the policy
6 proceeds.

7 Therefore, Michael Powell and the Cox Defendants stipulate and agree to dismiss with 8 prejudice and without costs any claims and/or counterclaims against New York Life that were 9 filed or that could have been filed including, but not limited to, any claim for breach of 10 contract, bad faith, unfair or deceptive act or practice, unreasonable denial of a claim for 11 payment of benefits, violation of the Consumer Protection Act, violation of the Insurance Fair
12 Conduct Act, or negligence.

13 Michael Powell and the Cox Defendants further stipulate and agree that New York Life
14 and its affiliates and all of its present or former directors, officers, employees, agents and 15 representatives shall be discharged from any liability relating to or arising out of or connected 16 in any way with the Insurance Policies, including but not limited to, any benefit payable 17 thereunder, the handling and investigation of this claim, New York Life’s internal policies and 18 procedures for processing beneficiary change requests, or the disbursement of the interpleaded
19 funds.

20 Michael Powell and the Cox Defendants further stipulate and agree that they shall be 21 enjoined from making any claim against New York Life and/or its affiliates and all of its 22 present or former directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives with regard to any 23 benefit payable under the Insurance Policies, or with regard to the disbursement of the 24 interpleaded funds, or with regard to the handling or investigation of this claim, or with regard
25 to New York Life’s internal policies and procedures for processing beneficiary change
26 requests, including but not limited to, any claim for breach of contract, bad faith, unfair or 27 deceptive act or practice, unreasonable denial of a claim for payment of benefits, violation of

1 the Consumer Protection Act, violation of the Insurance Fair Conduct Act, or negligence.
