11 MARK J. COMBS,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 CAROLYN W. COLVIN, Acting
Commissioner of the Social Security Administration,

15
16 Defendant.

CASE NO. 12-5282 RJB/JRC

ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

17 This matter comes before the Court on the Report and Recommendation of United States 18 Magistrate Judge J. Richard Creatura. Dkt. 24. The Court has considered the Report and 19 Recommendation, Objections to the Report and Recommendation, and the remaining record.

20 The Report and Recommendation recommends affirming the commissioner's decision to 21 deny Plaintiff's claim for disability benefits under the Social Security Act. Dkt. 24. After 22 review of the Report and Recommendation, and Plaintiff's Objections, this Court concludes that 23 the Commissioner's decision should be upheld, the Report and Recommendation adopted, and 24 this case closed.

1 Plaintiff's Objections to the Report and Recommendation are a reiteration of his prior 2 pleadings and are addressed in the Report and Recommendation. Plaintiff argues that the ALJ
3 erred in concluding that Plaintiff could perform both simple and complex tasks. Dkt. 25.
4 Plaintiff argues that an examining physician, Dr. William J. Chalstrom, found that Plaintiff was 5 limited to short and simple instructions. Dkt. 25. A review of Dr. Chalstrom's psychological 6 evaluation does not support Plaintiff's position. In the "mental status" portion of his evaluation, 7 Dr. Chalstrom noted that:

8 The claimant is a tall man who is 6'8" tall. He was dressed in a ball cap, 9 white t-shirt and blue walking shorts. He was adequately groomed. There was no 10 evidence of psychomotor agitation or retardation. He was cooperative throughout 11 the interview. There was no indication of malingering or factitious behavior. He 12 described his mood as bad. "I don't want to do anything." I am probably going 13 to drop out of school." His affect was somewhat blunted and was congruent with 14 his stated mood. He denied delusional material or hallucinatory experiences. He 15 was not suicidal or homicidal. Speech was mildly rapid. He was somewhat 16 tangential and tended to ramble. He was oriented times three.

17 His remote memory seemed to be intact. On recent recall he could 18 remember three out of three objects after five minutes. He could repeat five digits 19 forward and three digits backward on immediate recall. Fund of knowledge was 20 fair. He could name the last five presidents in order. When asked to name the 21 governor of Washington he said he had no idea. He could name the bordering 22 states. Concentration was fair. He could do serial 7s at a good pace, but did make 23 one, one digit error. He could spell world forward and backward. He could 24 follow a 3-step command and had no difficulty following our conversation. He was rather concrete when asked to interpret proverbs. For example, on strike while the iron is hot, he said, "It has to do with pitching." On don't cry over spilled milk he said, "Why worry about it?" He showed poor judgment when asked what he would do smoke/theater, when he said he would hit the alarm.

19 Tr. 292-293. Dr. Chalstrom opined that the "MSE indicates that he is capable of understanding, 20 remembering, and carrying out short and simple instructions." Tr. 294. Dr. Chalstrom further 21 opined that "It would appear that he could get along with others in a work situation. There is no 22 evidence to indicate that he could not maintain attention, concentration, and pace through a 23 normal eight-hour workday." Id.

1 As stated in the Report and Recommendation, the ALJ is responsible for resolving 2 ambiguities and conflicts in the medical evidence. Dkt. 24, at 8 (citing Reddick v. Chatter, 157 3 F.3d 715, 722 (9th Cir. 1998)). At best, Dr. Chalstrom's conclusions are ambiguous as to 4 whether Plaintiff can carry out complex tasks. The ALJ did not err in relying on other medical 5 reports which were more conclusive on the issue. Plaintiff's objections do not provide a basis to 6 reject the Report and Recommendation. The Report and Recommendation (Dkt. 24) should be 7 adopted and the case closed.

8 It is ORDERED that:

- 9 1) The Report and Recommendation (Dkt. 24) is ADOPTED;
- 10 2) The Commissioner's decision to deny benefits is AFFIRMED; and
- 11 3) This case is CLOSED.

12 The Clerk is directed to send uncertified copies of this Order to U.S. Magistrate judge J.
13 Richard Creatura, all counsel of record and to any party appearing pro se at said party's last 14 known address.

15 Dated this 8th day of April, 2013.
