8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT TACOMA

10 ASHER JAMES BECKER,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 BRENT CARNEY et al.,

14 Defendants.

CASE NO. 3:16-CV-05315-RBL-JRC

ORDER ON SEVERAL MOTIONS

15 Before the Court are two motions filed by plaintiff: (1) Motion for Court to Provide 16 Information (Dkt. 39) and (2) Motion for Personal Service of defendant Williamson and 17 Department of Corrections (“DOC”) (Dkt. 40). Defendants filed a response. Dkt. 42. Plaintiff
18 filed a reply. Dkt. 45.

19 The Court also notes that there are two additional motions currently pending, see Dkts. 43
20 and 44, however, those motions are not ripe for the Court’s review at this time.

21 1. Motion for Court to Provide Information (Dkt. 39)

22 Plaintiff requests that the Court provide information regarding service of defendants and 23 requests a copy of the docket sheet. Dkt. 39. The same day that plaintiff filed his motion, the 24

1 Clerk's office sent him a courtesy copy of the docket sheet. See Dkt. 39-1. In another pleading
2 filed with the Court, plaintiff acknowledges that he received a copy of the court's docket on 3 November 10, 2016. Dkt. 40 at 2. Thus, plaintiff's request is denied as moot. If plaintiff has any
4 additional questions regarding the docket, he may request an updated copy of the docket sheet
5 with all filings to date.

6 2. Motion for Personal Service of DOC and Joe Williamson (Dkt. 40)

7 In his motion, plaintiff requests that the Court order personal service on Joe Williamson
8 and the Washington Department of Corrections ("DOC"). Dkt. 40 at 2. Plaintiff also requests
9 that the Court grant him an additional sixty days to perfect service. Id. at 2-3.

10 Defendants do not oppose plaintiff's request for an extension, and thus, the Court grants
11 plaintiff's request.

12 With respect to plaintiff's request for personal service, on August 4, 2016, the Court
13 directed service of plaintiff's complaint. Dkt. 14. Waivers of service were due September 9, 14 2016. See docket entry dated August 4, 2016. To date, Mr. Williamson and the DOC have not 15 returned a waiver of service. See Dkt. Defense counsel has not appeared on behalf of the DOC or 16 Mr. Williamson. See Dkt.

17 The court has no jurisdiction over the DOC or Mr. Williamson until they have been 18 properly served under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. Direct Mail Specialists, Inc. v. Eclat Computerized
19 Techs., Inc., 840 F.2d 685, 688 (9th Cir. 1988). Under Rule 4(c)(2), the Court may order that 20 service be made by a United States marshal. However, in this district, the marshals do not 21 attempt personal service upon a defendant unless mail service is unavailing. See Local Rule 4(c).

22 With respect to service of the DOC, defendants argue that the DOC is not a proper 23 defendant subject to suit under § 1983, and thus, the Court should not order service. Dkt. 42. In 24

1 his reply, plaintiff argues that he sues the DOC for injunctive relief under the Religious Land
2 Use and Institutionalized Persons Act (“RLUIPA”) and that Congress has abrogated the states’
3 sovereign immunity. Dkt. 45.

4 Defendants’ response, arguing that the DOC cannot be sued in this matter, is not the 5 proper vehicle to make such an argument. A response in opposition to a motion challenges
6 whether the motion should be granted. Defendants’ argument has not been brought before the 7 Court in an appropriate motion, such as a motion to dismiss or motion for judgment on the 8 pleadings. Moreover, the Court notes that while plaintiff is not entitled to recover monetary
9 damages against a state entity under RLUIPA, he may be entitled to injunctive relief. See
10 Sossamon v. Texas, 131 S.Ct. 1651, 1658, 1666 (2011) (Sotomayor, J., dissenting) (noting the 11 majority’s implicit acceptance of suits for injunctive relief under RLUIPA (quoting Pennhurst 12 State School and Hospital v. Halderman, 465 U.S. 89, 99 (1984)); Guru Nanak Sikh Society of 13 Yuba City v. Cnty. of Sutter, 326 F.Supp.2d 1140, 1161 (E.D. Cal. 2003) (injunctive relief is 14 “appropriate relief” under RLUIPA).

15 Because defendants’ argument as to whether the DOC is a proper party to this suit under 16 § 1983 is not before the Court, the Court declines to consider it at this time. The Court orders
17 defendant DOC to show cause by January 13, 2017, why it should not be personally served at 18 its expense for failure to file a waiver. Defendant DOC may satisfy this show-cause order by 19 filing a waiver and by having counsel enter a notice of appearance on its behalf and indicate 20 whether it joins in any pleadings or pending motions.

21 Defendants state that they have no opinion as to plaintiff’s request that the Court order
22 personal service on Mr. Williamson. Id. Defendants state that Mr. Williamson is on extended
23 leave from the DOC and that the DOC forwarded the waiver of service packet to Mr.

1 Williamson's last known address. Id. Defendants also state that they have been unable to reach
2 Mr. Williamson by phone. Id. at 2. Defendants defer to the Court as to what action would be
3 proper in further efforts to serve Mr. Williamson. Id.

4         Although defendants have forwarded the waiver of service to Mr. Williamson's last
5 known address, the Court has not attempted to send the waiver directly to Mr. Williamson. Thus,
6 prior to ordering personal service of Mr. Williamson, the Court orders defendants to submit the 7 last known business or last known home addresses of unserved Mr. Williamson to the court
8 under seal on or before January 13, 2017 so that the Clerk may attempt to effect service. This 9 solution alleviates two concerns involving prisoner litigation: (1) the security risks inherent in 10 providing prisoners with addresses of people formerly employed by the state; and (2) the reality
11 of prisoners getting the "runaround" when they are attempting to access information through the 12 government. Sellers v. United States, 902 F.2d 598, 602-603 (7th Cir. 1990). Mr. Williamson may 13 also satisfy this order by filing a waiver and by having counsel enter a notice of appearance on 14 his behalf.

15         The Court will not rule on plaintiff's motion for personal service until defendants have 16 shown cause and provided the last known address of Mr. Williamson. The Clerk is re-directed to 17 note the motion for personal service (Dkt. 40) for consideration on February 13, 2017.

18         Accordingly, it is ORDERED:

19         (1) Plaintiff's Motion for Information (Dkt. 39) is denied as moot.

20         (2) Plaintiff's request for a sixty-day extension of the deadline to effect service is 21         granted.

22         (3) Plaintiff's motion for personal service is re-noted for February 13, 2017.
23

1 (4) The DOC is ordered to show cause by January 13, 2017, why it should not be
2 personally served its expense for failure to file a waiver. The DOC may satisfy this 3 show cause order by filing a waiver and by having counsel enter a notice of 4 appearance on its behalf and indicate whether it joins in any pleadings or pending
5 motions. If defendants are in possession of the last known business or last known
6 home addresses of Mr. Williamson, they shall submit such addresses to the Court
7 under seal on or before January 13, 2017. All service documents with said address
8 shall also be filed under seal.

9 Dated this 14th day of December, 2016.
