CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

12 The undersigned district judges, having reviewed the Report and Recommendation Regarding 13 Case Management of Magistrate Judge J. Kelley Arnold and Magistrate Judge Karen L. Strombom, which 14 report is dated October 27, 2004, and objections to the report and recommendation, if any, and the 15 remaining record, do hereby find and ORDER:
16

17 (1) In any case in which Mr. Scott seeks in forma pauperis (IFP) status, he may not file any 18 pleadings requesting any type of relief until such time as the Complaint has been filed and a Notice of 19 Appearance has been timely filed on behalf of all the named defendants.

20 (2) Subpoenas will not be issued to Mr. Scott by the clerk's office without prior approval by the 21 judge. Mr. Scott shall file a motion requesting the issuance of subpoenas. For each subpoena requested
22 he shall include the name of the person he intends to name on the subpoena, the address of that individual,
23 the specific purpose of the subpoena and how that relates to the matters being litigated in that particular
24 suit. The defendant need not respond to the motion unless directed to do so by the judge.

25 (3) U.S. Marshal's Service Forms shall not be issued to Mr. Scott by the clerk's office without 26 prior approval by the judge. Mr. Scott shall file a motion with the court requesting a specific number of 27 service forms and he shall provide the name and address of each individual for whom a service form is 28 requested. The judge shall make the determination as to the appropriateness of the request.

1 (4) The plaintiff shall only file an original pleadings with the court and not a bench copy.

2 (5) The plaintiff shall comply with Local Rule 10(c)(9) for the United States District Court for the
3 Western District of Washington. In particular, all documents shall be filed on 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper and 4 no document filed with the court shall be double sided.

5 (6) In all pleadings filed by Mr. Scott, the caption shall contain the full name of the plaintiff and at 6 least the full name of the first named defendant as well as the correct cause number.

7 (7) Whenever any pleadings or documents received from Mr. Scott are not mailed in an envelope,
8 the first sheet of paper which contains the mailing address of the court shall be the envelope and that may 9 be discarded by the clerk. The first sheet of paper which contains the mailing address of the court shall 10 not contain any part of the pleadings being filed with the Court.

11 (8) The plaintiff may not file documents in other cases for other residents of the Special
12 Commitment Center.

13 (9) When the plaintiff files an exhibit, it must be clearly marked as an exhibit and the exhibits shall 14 be numbered consecutively. Each exhibit must be referenced in the pleading to which it is attached, 15 identifying what the exhibit is and why it is being attached.

16 (10) The plaintiff shall comply with all orders which stay a proceedings. The plaintiff shall not file
17 any motions in the particular case until the stay has been lifted by the court.

18 (11) Any motion for temporary restraining order (TRO) or other injunctive relief must comply
19 with all of the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 65. Any motion for a TRO or other injunctive relief, other 20 than contained in a complaint, must first be reviewed by the judge. If the motion does not meet the 21 requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 65 the motion shall be filed with the judge's notation that the document is 22 to be filed with no further ruling by the Court. The defendant in the case need not file a response to the 23 motion unless directed to do so by the judge.

24 (12) With regard to motions filed with the court, the plaintiff shall comply with Local Rule 7(b) of 25 the United States Court for the Western District of Washington. No party may file a response to a reply or 26 any additional pleadings beyond those allowed by that rule.
27
28

1 (13) This same order shall be entered by the assigned magistrate judge in all future cases which the 2 plaintiff files in the United States District Court in the Western District of Washington at Tacoma.
