8 PUGET SOUNDKEEPER ALLIANCE,

9 Plaintiff,

v.

10 APM TERMINALS TACOMA, LLC, et
11 al.,

12 Defendants.

CASE NO. C17-5016 BHS

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS TO DISMISS AND DENYING
PLAINTIFF'S THIRD MOTION
FOR LEAVE TO AMEND
COMPLAINT

13 This matter comes before the Court on Cross Defendant APM Terminals Tacoma,
14 LLC's ("APM") motion to dismiss crossclaim, Dkt. 134; SSA Marine, Inc., and SSA
15 Terminals, LLC's (collectively "SSA") motion to dismiss, Dkt. 136; and Plaintiff Puget
16 Soundkeeper Alliance's ("Soundkeeper") third motion for leave to amend, Dkt. 146. The 17 Court has considered the pleadings filed in support of and in opposition to the motions
18 and the remainder of the file and hereby grants the motions to dismiss and denies the 19 motion for leave to amend.

20 I. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL AND FACTUAL BACKGROUND

21 On June 13, 2018, Soundkeeper filed a third amended complaint ("TAC") against 22 APM, SSA, and the Port of Tacoma ("Port"). Dkt. 109. Soundkeeper brings a citizen

1 | suit under § 505 of the Clean Water Act (“CWA”), 33 U.S.C. § 1365. Id., ¶ 1.

2 | Soundkeeper alleges that APM operated a business at a location owned by the Port. Id., ¶

3 | 2. APM obtained a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (“NPDES”) permit
4 | from the State of Washington authorizing discharges of pollutants into navigable waters.

5 | Id., ¶¶ 1, 25. Soundkeeper alleges that APM violated that permit, which in turn violates

6 | the CWA. Id., ¶¶ 59–62. Soundkeeper asserts that the Port, as owner of the property, is

7 | also responsible for the alleged violations of the permit. Id., ¶¶ 63–67. To complicate

8 | matters further, APM terminated its lease with the Port, and the Port allegedly entered a

9 | lease with SSA. Id., ¶¶ 26–29. Soundkeeper asserts that the CWA violations are ongoing

10 | and that SSA is responsible for these violations. Id., ¶¶ 68–71.

11 | On August 3, 2017, Soundkeeper sent SSA a 60-day “Notice of Intent to Sue”

12 | letter regarding alleged violations of the NPDES permit at the property. Id., ¶ 7, Ex. 4.

13 | The letter provides in part as follows:

14 | Should SSA commence industrial operations and/or discharge
15 | stormwater at the facility, the [existing] Permit requires SSA to correct the
16 | deficiencies identified below. Soundkeeper hereby provides notice of its
17 | intent to sue for these violations of the [existing] Permit.

16 | ***

17 | Soundkeeper believes that this NOTICE OF INTENT TO SUE
18 | sufficiently states grounds for filing suit. We intend, at the close of the 60-
19 | day notice period and upon SSA’s commencement of industrial activity on
20 | this site, to file a citizen suit against SSA under Section 505(a) of the Clean
21 | Water Act

19 | Id., Exh. 4.

20 | SSA concedes that its parent corporation entered a lease for the property on
21 | October 2, 2017. Dkt. 136 at 5. While SSA disputes that it operated or leased the

1 property, for the purposes of this order the Court will accept as true Soundkeeper's
2 allegation that SSA bears liability for CWA violations as of October 2, 2017. TAC, ¶ 34.

3 On July 18, 2018, the Port filed an amended answer and asserted a crossclaim
4 against APM. Dkt. 120. The Port alleges that it entered into a lease agreement with 5 APM and asserts that “[t]o the extent Soundkeeper establishes any violations of the 6 National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit(s) issued to [APM] or the Port,
7 that violation is a breach of the parties’ lease.” Id. at 15–16. The Port also asserts joint 8 and several liability. Id. at 16.

9 On August 8, 2018, APM moved to dismiss the Port’s crossclaim. Dkt. 134. On 10 August 13, 2018, SSA moved to dismiss Soundkeeper’s claim. Dkt. 136. On September 11 4, 2018, Soundkeeper responded to SSA’s motion and filed a motion to amend the 12 complaint. Dkts. 144, 146. On September 17, 2018, SSA and the Port responded to 13 Soundkeeper’s motion to amend. Dkts. 152, 154. On September 21, 2018, Soundkeeper
14 replied to its motion and SSA replied to its motion. Dkts. 160, 161. On October 22,
15 2018, the Port responded to APM’s motion. Dkt. 171. On October 26, 2018, APM
16 replied to its motion. Dkt. 173.

17 II. DISCUSSION

18 A. SSA’s Motion

19 SSA moves to dismiss because (1) “at no time has [SSA] operated, leased, or had 20 a fee interest in the Facility;” (2) Soundkeeper failed to give adequate notice; and (3)
21 “involving [SSA] in this dispute fails to accomplish the purpose for which the CWA 22 citizen suit was enacted.” Dkt. 136 at 2. The Court will only address the adequacy of

1 Soundkeeper’s notice because it is dispositive, and the Court lacks jurisdiction to 2 consider the other issues.

3 Section 505(a) of the Clean Water Act states that “any citizen may commence a 4 civil action on his own behalf against any person . . . who is alleged to be in violation of”
5 the conditions of a permit or has failed to obtain a permit. 33 U.S.C. § 1365(a)(1). SSA
6 argues that Soundkeeper’s notice is deficient because SSA could not be in violation of a
7 permit before it became a tenant on the property. Dkt. 136 at 12–14. Soundkeeper
8 responds that “[t]his Court has already rejected SSA’s ‘anticipatory notice’ argument in 9 this case when the Port raised it and should do so again here.” Dkt. 144 at 9.

10 Soundkeeper misconstrues the Court’s prior order. In that order, the Court stated as 11 follows:

12 this case raises the question of whether, after a defendant receives a proper
13 notice letter alleging that it has failed to prepare and implement an adequate
14 [remedial action], the issuance of a new permit number under the same
15 general NPDES permit requires the sending of a new notice letter.

16 Dkt. 107 at 12. The Court concluded that the original notice letter was sufficient. Id. at 17 14–15. While this conclusion relates to anticipatory notice in one specific factual
18 scenario, the Court rejects Soundkeeper’s proposition that the conclusion supports 19 anticipatory notice in every factual scenario.

20 For example, consider the factual scenario involving the current parties.

21 Soundkeeper has notice of an entity that will assume operations at a facility that it alleges 22 is currently violating the CWA. Soundkeeper sends that entity a 60-day notice of its intent to sue exactly sixty days before the entity is scheduled to assume operations at the

1 location. If this notice is sufficient, then Soundkeeper could have filed suit the day that 2 the entity assumes operations without allowing that entity any time to correct the alleged 3 violations. Soundkeeper's position is untenable and it fails to cite any authority for such
4 a proposition. Moreover, this proposition violates the purpose of the notice requirement, 5 which "is to ensure that the defendant and/or government enforcement authorities are 6 given some pre-suit notice so that they have an opportunity to address the matter before a
7 lawsuit is filed." Citizens for a Better Env't-Cal. v. Union Oil Co. of Cal., 861 F. Supp.
8 889, 912 (N.D. Cal. 1994), aff'd, 83 F.3d 1111 (9th Cir. 1996) (citing Hallstrom v.
9 Tillamook Cty, 493 U.S. 20, 30–31 (1989)).

10 Under Soundkeeper's proposition, an entity would have no time to address the 11 alleged violation before a lawsuit is filed if the entity was welcomed to the property in 12 question with a copy of a complaint. In the absence of any compelling policy reasons to 13 the contrary, and Soundkeeper has provided none, the Court will adhere to the Supreme 14 Court's holding "that the notice and 60-day delay requirements are mandatory conditions
15 precedent to commencing suit under the [applicable] citizen suit provision; a district court
16 may not disregard these requirements at its discretion." Hallstrom, 493 U.S. at 31.

17 Therefore, the Court grants SSA's motion to dismiss because the Court lacks jurisdiction
18 over Soundkeeper's claim based on Soundkeeper's failure to provide adequate notice.

19 This conclusion also dooms Soundkeeper's motion for leave to amend because the 20 amended complaint relies on the same notice letter. See Dkt. 146-2 at 5, ¶ 7. Thus, it
21 would be futile to amend to add SSA's parent corporation based on the same inadequate
22 notice. Hoang v. Bank of Am., N.A., 910 F.3d 1096, 1103 (9th Cir. 2018) ("leave to

1 amend need not be granted when any amendment would be an exercise in futility”)
2 (internal quotations omitted). Accordingly, the Court denies Soundkeeper’s third motion
3 for leave to amend.

4 B. The Port’s Motion

5 The Port moves to dismiss APM’s crossclaim for failure to state a claim “because 6 [the claim] fails to comply with even the most basic pleading requirements of Rule 8.”
7 Dkt. 134 at 1.

8 1. Standard

9 Motions to dismiss brought under Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil 10 Procedure may be based on either the lack of a cognizable legal theory or the absence of 11 sufficient facts alleged under such a theory. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Department, 12 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990). Material allegations are taken as admitted and the 13 claim is construed in the nonmoving party’s favor. Keniston v. Roberts, 717 F.2d 1295,
14 1301 (9th Cir. 1983). To survive a motion to dismiss, the claim does not require detailed 15 factual allegations but must provide the grounds for entitlement to relief and not merely a 16 “formulaic recitation” of the elements of a cause of action. Bell Atlantic Corp. v.
17 Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). Plaintiffs must allege “enough facts to state a claim 18 to relief that is plausible on its face.” Id. at 1974.

19 2. Merits

20 Upon review of the crossclaim, the Court agrees with APM that the Port’s
21 crossclaim fails the basic pleading requirements. For example, a claim must contain “a 22 short and plain statement of the grounds for the court’s jurisdiction.” Fed. R. Civ. P.

1 8(a)(1). Although the Port concedes that the claim does not explicitly allege jurisdiction,
2 the Port argues that it met its pleading requirement because it put ATM “on notice of the 3 basis for jurisdiction through non-conclusory statements.” Dkt. 171 at 5. To support this 4 argument, the Port cites a district court case out of the Northern District of Illinois that 5 addressed the question of whether personal jurisdiction was based on general or specific
6 jurisdiction. Id. (citing Repository Techs. v. Sys. Consultants, Inc., No. 02-C-8640, 2003
7 WL 21148340, at *6 (N.D. Ill. May 16, 2003)). Even if this case was persuasive for the 8 proposition of providing sufficient notice, which it is not, it is easily distinguishable
9 because ATM is challenging the adequacy of the Port’s notice as to subject-matter
10 jurisdiction. Not only are personal and subject-matter jurisdiction entirely different 11 grounds for dismissal, but the latter is so important that any court must dismiss for lack 12 of subject-matter jurisdiction at any time. Fed. R. Civ. P 12(h)(3); 3123 SMB LLC v.
13 Horn, 880 F.3d 461, 470 (9th Cir. 2018) (courts “have an independent obligation to 14 ensure that subject-matter jurisdiction exists”). In the absence of any allegation asserting
15 subject-matter jurisdiction, the Court is unable to ensure that such jurisdiction exists.
16 While the Port presents meritorious arguments in favor of such jurisdiction, the Port may 17 not rewrite its claim through its response brief. Therefore, the Court grants APM’s 18 motion to dismiss.

19 In the event the court finds that dismissal is warranted, the court should grant the 20 claimant leave to amend unless amendment would be futile. Eminence Capital, LLC v.
21 Aspeon, Inc., 316 F.3d 1048, 1052 (9th Cir. 2003). The Court is unable to conclude that 22 any amendment would be futile. Therefore, the Court grants the Port leave to amend.

1 III. ORDER

2 Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that APM's motion to dismiss crossclaim, Dkt.
3 134 and SSA's motion to dismiss, Dkt. 136, are GRANTED and Soundkeeper's third
4 motion for leave to amend, Dkt. 146, is DENIED. The Port may file an amended answer
5 no later than February 8, 2019.

6 Dated this 31st day of January, 2019.
