8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT TACOMA

11 JOHN ROBERT DEMOS, JR.,
12 Plaintiff(s),
13 v.
14 WASHINGTON STATE SUPREME
15 COURT,
16 Defendant(s).

CASE NO. 3:22-cv-05343-TL
ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

17 This matter comes before the Court on the Report and Recommendation of the Honorable
18 S. Kate Vaughan, United States Magistrate Judge (Dkt. No. 2) and Petitioner John Robert
19 Demos, Jr.'s objections to the Report and Recommendation (Dkt. No. 3). Having reviewed the 20 Report and Recommendation, Petitioner's objections, and the remaining record, the Court
21 ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation, OVERRULES the objections, and DISMISSES the Petition.

22 A district court "shall make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or 23 specified proposed findings or recommendations to which objection is made." 28 U.S.C.
24 § 636(b)(1); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(3) (the Court "must determine de novo any part of the

1 magistrate judge's disposition that has been properly objected to."). "The district judge may
2 accept, reject, or modify the recommended disposition; receive further evidence; or return the
3 matter to the magistrate judge with instructions." Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(3); accord 28 U.S.C.
4 § 636(b)(1). A party properly objects when the party files "specific written objections" to the 5 report and recommendation as required under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b)(2).

6 Mr. Demos objects to the Report and Recommendation on the sole ground that the bar
7 order prohibiting him from seeking an extraordinary writ in this district without payment of the 8 filing fee does not apply to this petition for a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2241. Dkt.
9 No. 3 at 1). The order in question specifically bars Mr. Demos from filing petitions for relief
10 under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1651, 2253, or 2254. See Demos v. Stanley, MC97-0031-JLW (W.D. Wash.
11 Mar. 13, 1997). The order does not specifically include relief under § 2241 because Mr. Demos
12 is a Washington state prisoner and cannot seek relief from his original conviction under that 13 statute. See 28 U.S.C. 2241(c). The Court understands the order to prohibit Mr. Demos from 14 seeking any extraordinary writs in this district based on his original conviction in Washington
15 state court. As noted by Judge Vaughan in the report and recommendation, the petition at bar
16 seeks such an extraordinary writ and was filed without payment of the filing fee. Dkt. No. 2
17 at 1-2, n.1.

18 The Court therefore ORDERS:

- 19 1. Mr. Demos' objection is OVERRULED;
 - 20 2. The Report and Recommendation is APPROVED and ADOPTED;
 - 21 3. The Clerk shall administratively CLOSE this matter.
