CHARLESTON DIVISION

IN RE: ETHICON, INC.,
PELVIC REPAIR SYSTEM
PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION

MDL No. 2327

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:

Chumley v. Ethicon, Inc., et al.

Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-03978

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Pending before the court is a Motion to Dismiss with Prejudice filed by Ethicon, Inc. (“Ethicon”). [Docket 15]. Plaintiff has responded, Ethicon has replied, and I have considered the parties’ filings.

Ethicon’s Motion arises from this court’s Order [Docket 13], entered on July 8, 2015, denying Ethicon’s Motion for Sanctions, including monetary penalties, dismissal and any other sanction deemed appropriate by the court, for failure to file a Plaintiff Profile Form (“PPF”) in compliance with Pretrial Order # 17. In reaching this decision, I relied on Wilson v. Volkswagen of America, Inc., 561 F.2d 494 (4th Cir. 1977), in which the Fourth Circuit identified four factors that a court must consider when reviewing a motion to dismiss on the basis of noncompliance with discovery. (See Order [Docket 13], at 4-7 (applying the Wilson factors to Ms. Chumley’s case)).¹

- (1) Whether the noncomplying party acted in bad faith; (2) the amount of prejudice his noncompliance caused his adversary, which necessarily includes an inquiry into the materiality of the evidence he failed to produce; (3) the need for deterrence of the particular sort of noncompliance; and (4) the effectiveness of less drastic sanctions.

Mut. Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass’n v. Richards & Assocs., Inc., 872 F.2d 88, 92 (4th Cir. 1989) (citing Wilson, 561 F.2d at 503–06).

Concluding that the first three factors weighed in favor of sanctions as requested by Ethicon, I nevertheless declined to award the requested sanction of $100 for each day the plaintiff's PPF was late because it would offend the court's duty under Wilson's fourth factor, which is to consider the effectiveness of lesser sanctions. In recognition of this duty, I gave the plaintiff "a final chance to comply with discovery." (Id. at 7). I afforded her 30 business days from the entry of the Order to submit to Ethicon a completed PPF, with the caveat that a failure to do so "will result in dismissal with prejudice upon motion by the defendant." (Id.). Despite this warning, Ms. Chumley has again refused to comply with this court's orders and did not provide Ethicon with her PPF within the 30-day period. Consequently, Ethicon moved to dismiss the case with prejudice.

Because the less drastic sanction instituted against Ms. Chumley has had no effect on her compliance with and response to this court's discovery orders, which she has continued to blatantly disregard, I find that dismissal with prejudice of Ethicon, Inc. is now appropriate. For the reasons explained in my July 8, 2015 Order [Docket 13], it is ORDERED that Ethicon's Motion to Dismiss with Prejudice [Docket 15] is GRANTED in part as to the dismissal of Ethicon, Inc. with prejudice. Because Boston Scientific Corp. remains as a defendant in this action, Ethicon's Motion is otherwise DENIED. With the dismissal of Ethicon, Inc. leaving Boston Scientific Corp. as the only remaining defendant in this action, plaintiff is granted leave to file an Amended Short Form Complaint using the Boston Scientific Corp. form found on the court's website at www.wvsd.uscourts.gov. In addition, plaintiff is directed to file a Motion to Transfer MDLs, found on the court's website under Ethicon. Both pleadings should be filed within fourteen (14) days of entry of this order. The court DIRECTS the Clerk to send a copy of this Order to counsel of record and any unrepresented party.
