CHARLESTON DIVISION

IN RE: AMERICAN MEDICAL SYSTEMS, INC.,
PELVIC REPAIR SYSTEM
PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION

MDL No. 2325

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:

Carlson v. American Medical Systems, Inc.

Civil Action No. 2:14-cv-10095

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

Pending before the court is defendant, American Medical Systems, Inc.’s (“AMS”) Motion to Dismiss. [ECF No. 9]. The plaintiff has not responded, and the deadline for responding has expired. Thus, this matter is ripe for my review. For the reasons stated below, the motion is GRANTED.

AMS’s Motion arises from this court’s Order [ECF No. 7], entered on August 2, 2016 denying AMS’s Motion for Sanctions, including monetary penalties and dismissal with prejudice, for failure to serve a Plaintiff Profile Form (“PPF”) in compliance with Pretrial Order (“PTO”) # 19. In reaching this decision, I relied on Wilson v. Volkswagen of America, Inc., 561 F.2d 494 (4th Cir. 1977), in which the Fourth Circuit identified four factors that a court must consider when reviewing a motion to dismiss on the basis of noncompliance with discovery. See Order at 4–7 [ECF No. 7] (applying the Wilson factors to Ms. Carlson’s case).<sup>1</sup> Concluding that the first three factors weighed in favor of sanctions as requested by AMS, I nevertheless declined to award the requested sanctions of either dismissal or monetary sanctions because it would offend the court's duty under Wilson's fourth factor, which is to consider the effectiveness of lesser sanctions. In recognition of this duty, I gave the plaintiff a final chance to comply with the deadlines set forth in PTO # 19. I afforded her 30 business days from the entry of the Order to submit to AMS a completed PPF, with the caveat that a failure to do so may result in dismissal of AMS as a defendant in her case upon motion by AMS. Despite this warning, Ms. Carlson has again failed to comply with this court's orders and did not provide AMS with her PPF within the 30-day period. Consequently, AMS moved to dismiss with prejudice.

<sup>1</sup> The Wilson factors are as follows: (1) Whether the noncomplying party acted in bad faith; (2) the amount of prejudice his noncompliance caused his adversary, which necessarily includes an inquiry into the materiality of the evidence he failed to produce; (3) the need for deterrence of the particular

Because the less drastic sanction instituted against Ms. Carlson has had no effect on her compliance with and response to this court's discovery orders, which she has continued to blatantly disregard, I find that dismissing AMS is now appropriate. For the reasons explained in my August 2, 2016 Order [ECF No. 7], it is ORDERED that the defendant's Motion to Dismiss [ECF No. 9] is GRANTED, and AMS is DISMISSED with prejudice.

sort of noncompliance; and (4) the effectiveness of less drastic sanctions. Mut. Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. Richards & Assocs., Inc., 872 F.2d 88, 92 (4th Cir. 1989) (citing Wilson, 561 F.2d at 503-06).

The court DIRECTS the Clerk to send a copy of this Order to counsel of record and to any unrepresented party.
