Case No. 09-CV-492

Plaintiffs,

v.

KELSEY LYNG MCDONOUGH,

Defendant.

ORDER

On October 27, 2009, in her amended answer to a complaint brought against her, the defendant, Kelsey Lyng McDonough (“McDonough”), contested whether this court has in personam jurisdiction over her. (Docket #18). However, McDonough has not made a corresponding motion to the court to dismiss the case for the reasons set forth in her answer. As such, in order to facilitate the disposition of this case, the court will require that McDonough file a motion within 21 days of this order to resolve the jurisdictional issues posed by her answer. The plaintiffs will then be required to respond to the defendant’s motion pursuant to Civil L.R. 7.1(b), which necessitates that the opposing party serve a “response brief, and, when necessary, affidavits or other documents within 21 days of service of the motion.” Likewise, the defendant will then need to serve a reply brief within 14 days from the service of the response brief. Civil L.R. 7.1(b).
