FARRIS WEEKS,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 20-cv-0836-bhl

v.

CREDIT ONE BANK, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER UNSEALING DOCUMENTS

---

On April 12, 2021, Plaintiff’s counsel filed a declaration and exhibits in connection with his response to the Court’s March 29, 2021 Order to Show Cause. (ECF No. 85.) Contrary to the Local Rules, counsel filed the declaration and exhibits under seal, without seeking Court permission. On April 13, 2021, the Clerk of Court entered a notice of the filing error on the docket, informing counsel that the Court would consider the documents to be publicly filed unless a separate motion to seal or restrict the document was filed, as required by General Local Rule 79. The Clerk further directed counsel to file the required motion to restrict or seal “immediately,” and referred him to the Court’s electronic case filing manual. Two weeks have passed, and counsel has made no effort to comply with the local rule or otherwise respond to the Clerk’s notice.

Under General Local Rule 79, all documents filed with the Court are considered public unless accompanied by a separate motion asking the Court to restrict access. The motion must be supported by facts demonstrating good cause for restricting access and describe the general nature of the information withheld from the public record. Moreover, to the extent possible, the movant must include with the public filing a version of the document or material that redacts only those portions of the document that are subject to the restriction/sealing request. “Absent a sufficient factual basis demonstrating good cause sufficient to seal the documents,” the motion must be denied and the documents must be publicly filed by the Clerk of Court. General L.R. 79(d)(3).

Counsel has failed to file the required motion to restrict or seal the declaration and exhibits. Despite the Clerk allowing him time to remedy this failure, counsel has not done so and has made no showing of good cause sufficient to warrant restricting public access to the filing. Accordingly, the Clerk of Court is DIRECTED to unseal the declaration and exhibits (ECF No. 85).

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 27th day of April, 2021.
