Defendant may seek leave to take additional discovery and to seek relief from the court for any alleged discovery failures by plaintiff, but any such requests must be specific. All dates in the calendar set by Judge Crabb remain in place. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 7/15/15. (jat) (Entered: 07/15/2015)

07/16/2015	96	Response re: 94 Order on Motion for Protective Order, Order on Motion to Compel, by Plaintiff Suoja, Delores Agnes. (McCoy, Robert) (Entered: 07/16/2015)
07/17/2015	97	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Plaintiffs' counsel have filed in camera and under seal a set of 48 email communications between counsel and Gary Suoja. See dkt. 95-1 through 95-48. The court has read each of these emails and has considered each of them in the context of the privilege waiver attendant to plaintiffs' claim that their counsel did not have authority to accept defendant's settlement offer. Some of the emails are discoverable, most are not. Some of the emails that the court is not requiring to be disclosed raise the topic of settlement, but in a context that sheds no light on the question whether plaintiffs' attorney had authority to accept defendant's settlement offer. For emails of this nature, the attorney-client privilege remains intact. Plaintiffs must disclose the listed emails not later than noon on Tuesday July 22, 2015. The timing is designed to give plaintiffs, by counsel, until noon on Monday, July 21, 2015 to seek reconsideration.
