ORDER

09-cv-313-bbc

Counsel for plaintiffs have moved to withdraw from their representation of plaintiffs
Robert Dabal, Lewis Tate, Eula Sheehan (as real party in interest for the Estate of Thomas Daly) and Ethel McNamara (as real party in interest for the Estate of Michael McNamara). The motion will be granted as to each of these plaintiffs unless they can show the court why it should be denied. Plaintiffs' counsel have advised the court that they have made many attempts to talk with these plaintiffs about the status of the matter and the need to complete certain paperwork allowing plaintiffs' counsel to represent them as individual plaintiff, but that plaintiffs have not responded.

Plaintiffs may have until April 26, 2012, to object to counsel's motion. If any plaintiff does not make a showing that plaintiffs' counsel's motion should be denied, the case will be dismissed as to that plaintiff for failure to prosecute the action.
