04/12/2012	58	Affidavit of Kevin J. Eldridge filed by Defendant Grant Regional Health Center re: 56 MOTION to Amend Briefing Schedule, (Eldridge, Kevin) (Entered: 04/12/2012)
04/16/2012	59	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Plaintiff's motion to amend the schedule 56 is DENIED. Plaintiff has known of his likely need for expert witness testimony in this lawsuit since the March 17, 2011 telephonic pretrial conference, and plaintiff's later-retained attorney has known of the need for experts since he appeared on December 29, 2011, see 41 . Plaintiff has known since January 31, 2012 (the date we amended the schedule a second time 48

) that his expert disclosures would be due by April 6, 2012. By incorporating the March 17, 2011 preliminary pretrial conference order, this court reminded plaintiff that "if a party does not follow the requirements of Rule 26(a)(2) by his deadline to disclose expert witnesses, then this court will not allow that expert witness to present evidence in this case," and that the calendar did not allow for extensions, "so the parties should begin looking for expert witnesses right away if this type of witness might be important for summary judgment or for trial." (19 at 3) Rather than heed these admonitions, plaintiff, by counsel, waited until the date his expert disclosures were due to seek a 6 week extension because he hadn't even gathered the information he deemed necessary to contact potential expert witnesses about his lawsuit, let alone generate any expert opinions. This is an utterly inadequate excuse, and as defendant confirms in opposition 57 , the requested extension would greatly prejudice defendant in this case. As a result of having missed his expert disclosure deadline in this manner, plaintiff has lost his right to present expert witnesses or their opinions in this lawsuit. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen Crocker on 4/16/2012. (llj) Modified on 4/16/2012 (llj). (Entered: 04/16/2012)

05/03/2012	62	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration 60 is DENIED. Plaintiff has not presented any evidence or argument that he could not have presented in his first motion for another scheduling amendment 59 and in any event his new assertions are weak and unsupported. Defendant was entitled to timely disclosure of any plaintiff experts so that defendant could prepare its summary judgment motion in time for submission by the May 21, 2012 deadline, which now is less than three weeks hence. The court has amended the schedule twice to accommodate both sides; it will not amend it a third time absent significantly more compelling reasons than those presented by plaintiff. 11/05/2013		 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Pursuant to this court's October 9, 2013, order, plaintiff Bashir Sheik submitted an affidavit demonstrating that complete diversity between the parties existed at the time he filed his complaint. (Dkt. # 127 .) (Plaintiff's submission was late, but the court will grant his motion for extension of time (dkt. # 126) filed along with his submission.) Defendant concedes the same. Accordingly, plaintiff's motion to continue jurisdiction over state claims (dkt. # 122) is GRANTED and the court will vacate its July 3, 2013, judgment. The court notes that yesterday plaintiff filed a notice of appeal from the now–vacated final judgment. Under the circumstances, the court assumes plaintiff will either withdraw his notice of appeal or, failing that, the Seventh Circuit will reject it for lack of jurisdiction. Plaintiff also filed a "motion for disclosure," seeking another chance to submit responses to defendant's proposed findings of facts. (Dkt. # 134) For the reasons previously explained in this court's order denying plaintiff's motion for reconsideration of the court's grant of summary judgment to defendant on plaintiff's federal law claims (dkt. # 125), that motion is DENIED. Signed by District Judge William M. Conley on 11/1/2013. (jef),(ps) (Entered: 11/05/2013)
