04/08/2015		Minute Entry for proceedings held before Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker: Telephone Motion Hearing held on 4/8/2015 re 132 Motion to Compel the Production of Documents of Past Trial and Deposition Testimony of Key ST Witnesses filed by ABS Global, Inc. [1:00] (Court Reporter ls.) (skv) (Entered: 04/08/2015)
04/08/2015	155	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On April 8, 2015, the court held a telephonic hearing to address and rule on the pending

		discovery motions. All parties (and one proposed party-Cytonome/ST) were represented by counsel. The specifics of the court's rulings and the reasons for them were stated at the hearing and will not be repeated here. By way of brief overview: the court DENIED plaintiff's motion for a protective order (dkt. 49 ) and GRANTED defendant's motion for a protective order (dkt. 52 ). The court DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE defendants' motion (dkt. 95 ) to compel a clearer answer to interrogatory 6; plaintiff's explanation of its theory during the hearing now is part of its interrogatory response and defendants may attempt to tighten up and clarify its understanding of plaintiff's theory with follow-up interrogatories or at a 30(b)(6) deposition. The court DENIED as currently moot defendant's motion (dkt. 111 ) to compel more complete answers to specified requests for production. The court DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE plaintiff's motion (dkt. 114 ) to compel defendant Inguran ("ST") to produce Cytonome/ST's documents; Cytonome/ST must produce the requested documents, either under Rule 34 or Rule 45, depending on the court's ruling on Cytonome's motion 140 for limited intervention. As a result, the motion to supplement (dkt. 129 ) is DENIED as moot. The court GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART plaintiff's motion (dkt. 132 ) for production of transcripts; the parties understand how they are to approach the existence and availability of the transcripts. Each side will bear its own costs on all motions. Additionally, the court STRUCK the existing schedule and gave the parties until April 20, 2015 to submit a joint scheduling proposal. Finally, the court alerted the parties that they must meet their discovery obligations in this case quickly and completely. Hereafter, the court will sanction a party's breach of its discovery obligations under Rule 37(b) as justice requires. The parties had no other matters to bring to the court's attention. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 4/8/15. (jls) (Entered: 04/08/2015)

06/15/2015	173	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  In April, the parties submitted similar, but not identical proposals on scheduling. See dkt. 159 . Because the next available trial date for the presiding judge is August 1, 2016, we will go with the longer dates suggested by ST/XY, with these modifications: 26(a)(3) submissions and motions in limine are due by June 24, 2016, responses are due by July 8, 2016, the final pretrial conference shall be July 19, 2016 at 4:00 p.m. and trial shall begin August 1, 2016 at 9:00 a.m. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. 06/15/2015		Set Hearings: Final Pretrial Conference set for 7/19/2016 at 04:00 PM. Jury Selection and Trial set for 8/1/2016 at 09:00 AM. (jls) (Entered: 06/15/2015)

06/15/2015	174	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  In a text-only order issued earlier today, the court did not choose between the parties' competing predictions on how long the trial would last. Counsel promptly contacted the court to ask for its prediction. The court is not in a position to determine which side more accurately assessed how long the trial would last if they had free rein, but it can tell them that with an August 1, 2016 start date, they will get three weeks to finish and the court will rowel them to that end, so they must plan accordingly. 07/29/2015	190	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Defendant's motion (dkt. 182 ) to compel designations of Rule 30(b)(6) testimony is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for failure to meet and confer with plaintiff before filing this motion. Defendant's request for fee-shifting on this motion is DENIED outright. As confirmed by plaintiff's July 28 response (dkt. 185 ), on July 20, 2015, one of defendant's attorneys set a 22-hour deadline for plaintiff to capitulate to defendant's demand that plaintiff withdraw all of its objections to defendant's 30(b)(6) notice "or we will assume that you are refusing to do so and that Court intervention is required." See dkt. 186-3. On July 21, 2015 at 11:57 a.m. (not quite two hours after the announced deadline) one of plaintiff's attorneys sent an email stating that it would provide its response to the demand letter "soon," dkt. 186-4, and a two-page response letter was sent later that same day, in which plaintiff conceded some of its objections but not others, dkt. 187-5. Defendant filed its motion to compel at 7:01 p.m. that same evening. I infer that defendant had not yet received plaintiff's partial concession letter by the time it filed the pending motion to compel. Even so, defendant jumped the gun. Defendant claims to have attempted to meet and confer on the 30(b)(6) dispute, but the communications filed with the court do not support this claim. This court is too pragmatic to glorify form over substance, but defendant's ultimatum to plaintiff was unrealistic in addition to being unreasonable. At this juncture, the court is not going to hold a hearing on a discovery motion that is rooted in line-in-the-sand bravado and that was partly mooted within hours of being filed. It is ORDERED that the parties must actually meet and confer about the 30(b)(6) topics that remain in dispute. If they cannot resolve the remaining issues after a genuine, good faith attempt by both parties to do so, THEN one side or the other may file a discovery motion on this topic with the court. It is further ORDERED that plaintiff's request for its costs in responding to the instant motion is GRANTED. Plaintiff may have until August 3, 2015 to submit an itemized bill of costs, with defendant's response to the reasonableness of the request due by August 7, 2015. That said, the parties may, if they choose, set to one side this particular fee-shifting dispute in order to focus on the substance of the 30(b)(6) dispute, then re-address fee-shifting as a package deal if they have to come back to court for a substantive ruling. 06/09/2016	451	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Discovery in this case ended on May 20, 2016. See dkts. 406 &amp; 407. A motion to compel discovery filed after the discovery cutoff is a nullity because discovery is over. On June 1, 2016, plaintiff filed a motion (dkt. 417 ) to compel discovery that had been propounded on January 29, 2016 (See dkt. 419-1) and to which defendants responded on February 29, 2016 (see dkt. 419-2). Plaintiff's explanation as to why it waited until after discovery closed to seek court intervention is unpersuasive. Plaintiff's motion to compel is denied as untimely. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 6/9/2016. (jls) (Entered: 06/09/2016)

07/29/2016	623	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  In light of the parties' proposed submission regarding former XY employee Kathy Mean, the court intends to make the following statement to the jury at trial: "ABS hired a former XY employee named Kathy Mean in 2007. Ms. Mean took certain trade secrets when she left XY involving confidential media protocols for sperm sorting. She used those protocols at ABS when she was asked to design media protocols for the GSS technology. By virtue of Ms. Mean's conduct, ABS concedes that it is liable for the misappropriation of ST's trade secret protocols, and that it is accountable for any damages that may have resulted."
