01/14/2015	32	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  The court has received a proposed restraining order from plaintiff, as the court requested. Dkt. 28 . The court has also received an unanticipated submission: defendants submit affidavits from the case manager and the guardian ad litem indicating that neither of them would interfere in the birth of plaintiff's baby unless "a significant new risk to the child develops that requires the [Taylor County Human Services] Department's attention." Dkts. 29 , 30 . Defendants contend that any immediate threat to plaintiff's privacy and autonomy during the birth is substantially alleviated, and they ask the court to rescind the expedited briefing schedule on the motion for injunction. Dkt. 29 . The court will provide plaintiff the opportunity to respond to defendants' request by 12:00 p.m. (noon), January 15, 2015. Signed by District Judge James D. Peterson on 1/14/2015. (nlm) (Entered: 01/14/2015)
01/14/2015	33	Brief in Opposition by Plaintiff Tamara M. Loertscher re: 29 MOTION to Amend Briefing Schedule filed by Eloise Anderson, Brad D. Schimel. (Bowen, Freya) (Entered: 01/14/2015)

01/15/2015	35	Order GRANTING defendants' 29 Motion to rescind the expedited briefing schedule; DENYING plaintiff's 28 Motion for Restraining Order. Plaintiff need not inform the court when she goes into labor, and thus the court's previous request that she do so is rescinded. The court will not adopt defendants' proposed briefing schedule, but will set a case schedule once defendants have responded to the complaint. Signed by District Judge James D. Peterson on 1/15/2015. (elc) (Entered: 01/15/2015)

01/16/2015	36	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  Please note that the briefing schedule on plaintiff's motion concerning the sealed status of certain documents, Dkt. 15 , remains in place. Defendants' brief in opposition is due January 23, and plaintiff's reply is due January 26. Signed by District Judge James D. Peterson on 1/16/2015. (arw) (Entered: 01/16/2015)

04/13/2016	102	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On April 13, 2016, the court held a telephonic hearing on the State defendants' motion to compel discovery, dkt. 95 . All parties (including the Taylor County defendants) were represented by counsel. In discussion with the parties, the court granted the motion in part and denied the rest without prejudice to renewal. More specifically, in response to Interrogatories 1 through 5, plaintiff must report for each of her five claims which paragraphs of her amended complaint apply to which of her five claims. Plaintiff must provide the same five-part breakout by paragraph of the information on which she is claiming reliance from dkt. Nos. 16 -2 and 16 -3. These disclosures do not freeze the factual record: plaintiff may supplement them as this case progresses. Plaintiff does not have to amplify her responses to Interrogatories 7 and 8 at this time. That said, the State is entitled to a tighter presentation of plaintiff's support for her claim that every new statute and every amended statute that is part of Act 292 is facially unconstitutional under the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth and Fourteenth Amendments. Plaintiff soon will have to gloss with more precision her facial challenge to Act 292, so she had better start thinking about how she intends to do this. Finally, in response to concerns raised by the Taylor County defendants, the court is willing to grant a request to extend dates and deadlines in this case, including the dispositive motion deadline and the trial date, once the need to do so becomes clearer. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 4/13/2016. (kwf) (Entered: 04/13/2016)

05/17/2016	114	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On May 17, 2016, the court held a telephonic status conference. All parties were represented by counsel. As a result of the court having stricken the remainder of the existing schedule (dkt. 113), plaintiff voluntarily called off the imminent depositions, subject to rescheduling them later. The parties will sort out whether and how they wish to conduct any discovery while awaiting the court's rulings on the pending dismissal motions. All pending motions related to discovery and scheduling (dks. 87 , 103 , 106 and 108) are denied as moot. After the court

04/13/2017	236	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On April 12, 2017, the court held a telephonic hearing on defendant Taylor County's Motion for a Protective Order 230 . After discussing the motion with all who wished to be heard, the court denied it for reasons stated. That said, the jail has raised legitimate logistical concerns that must be addressed by the parties. Counsel are to meet and confer forthwith to attempt to reach an agreement on the details of the video recording. If agreement eludes them, then counsel must promptly notify the court so that it can convene a follow-up telephonic conference to resolve the disputes. The court also advised the parties that their April 14, 2017 submission deadline is stricken, the May 22, 2017 trial date remains firm, and Judge Peterson will hold his telephonic status
