(kwf) (Entered: 01/19/2016)
01/19/2016	12	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On January 19, 2016, the court learned (from an inquiry that it initiated) that although defendant filed its motion to compel discovery from third party Dane County Sheriff's Department on January 18, 2016, defendant has not yet served its motion on the Sheriff's Department, but will notify the court when it does. This approach is irrational and therefore unacceptable. The Sheriff's Department (and the plaintiff, if she wishes) shall have seven calendar days to respond to defendant's motion counting from the day on which defendant actually serves its motion on the Sheriff's Department. For now, the January 27, 2016 telephonic motion hearing remains on the calendar; the court will move it back a week if defendant does certify that it served its motion on the Sheriff's Department by 4:30 p.m. today. Signed by Magistrate Judge Stephen L. Crocker on 1/19/2016. (kwf) (Entered: 01/19/2016)
