12/19/2016	49	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  On December 5, 2016, defendant filed a motion for summary judgment on the basis of Wisconsin's Equine Immunity Statute (dkt. 40 ), the response to which is due December 27, 2016. On December 12, 2016, plaintiff filed a Rule 56(d) motion (dkt. 45 ) to extend her response deadline to February 3, 2017 due to the need for plaintiff's experts to rely on the deposition testimony plaintiff and witness Dean Nolan on January 3 and 4, 2017. According to plaintiff, the parties also have agreed that plaintiff's deadline to disclose her expert reports will be February 1, 2017 (dkt. 45 at par. 9). On December 19, 2016, defendant Holiday Acres responded (dkt. 48 ) that they do not oppose an extension to January 17, 2017, but oppose an extension to February 17, 2017 for reasons explained in the response. Plaintiff's actual motion requests a new deadline of February 3, 2017 (see dkt. 45 at 2), while the supporting affidavit implies that the requested new deadline is February 17, 2017, see dkt. 46 at 2. The overarching deadline to file summary judgment motions is February 17, 2017, see dkt. 20 . The court will grant the February 3, 2017 deadline that plaintiff actually requested because, as a practical matter, there is no reason not to: at this point, the court is not going to consider defendant's pending motion separately from any other summary judgment motion that might be filed on February 17, 2017 (although I infer there probably won't be any).
