ORDER

16-cv-846-jdp

Pro se plaintiff Edward Burgess is a prisoner in the custody of the Wisconsin Department, currently housed at the Wisconsin Secure Program Facility. Burgess filed a complaint alleging that prison officials failed to provide adequate treatment for plaintiff's plantar fasciitis and bone spurs. In a February 28, 2017 order, I granted plaintiff leave to proceed on Eighth Amendment deliberate indifference claims and deferred a decision on whether to allow Burgess to proceed on an Eighth Amendment claim concerning medical co-pays. Dkt. 9. I instructed Burgess to supplement his complaint with additional information about whether he could afford the co-payments and gave Burgess a deadline of March 21, 2017, to file his supplement. I indicated that if he failed to respond, I would dismiss this claim. Id. This deadline has now passed without a response from Burgess.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Edward Burgess's Eighth Amendment claim concerning medical co-payments is DISMISSED.

Entered April 17, 2017.
