

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

CHARLES RUBEN WYNN,

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

LUCAS WORGENESE, THOMAS MAIER,
DUSTIN ROHWER, DANIEL FIELDS,
DANIEL DREGER, and DANIEL FRISCH,

18-cv-333-jdp

Defendants.

Pro se plaintiff Charles Ruben Wynn, an inmate at Columbia Correctional Institution (CCI), has asked me to issue an order allowing him to file all future submissions in this case by U.S. mail. Dkt. 37 and Dkt. 39. Wynn is currently housed in CCI's restrictive housing unit, where the only writing utensil available to him is a rubber pencil. He says that if he tries to e-file any documents written in rubber pencil, "the words on the documents wouldn't be dark enough to be scanned and processed through the e-filing system." Id. at 1.

I will deny Wynn's motion. Inmates in restrictive housing routinely e-file pencil-written documents with this court without issue. Prison library staff are often able to darken the scanned text to make it legible. Wynn should continue to submit his filings to CCI library staff for e-filing, in accordance with this court's e-filing instructions. See Dkt. 4-1. If library staff determine that Wynn's filings cannot be made legible, or if court staff determine that the scans are too light to read, they may raise the possibility of submitting Wynn's filings by mail.

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff Charles Ruben Wynn's motion for an order permitting filing by mail, Dkt. 37 and Dkt. 39, is DENIED.

Entered August 13, 2019.
