08/27/2020	8	 TEXT ONLY ORDER  This court's general practice is to schedule social security cases for oral argument. To facilitate scheduling, the parties must file a joint notice stating their availability for oral argument. The notice must be filed within 10 days after plaintiff submits a reply brief (or within 10 days after the reply deadline if plaintiff does not file a reply) and the notice must identify three dates on which the parties would be available. These dates must be between 30 and 60 days after plaintiff's reply brief is due, preferably on Tuesdays or Thursdays, at either 11:00 AM or 1:00 PM. If the parties have good cause for not being available on three days within the required window, then they may request a different date. After the parties file their notice, the court will notify them if and when it intends to hold oral argument. Signed by District Judge James D. Peterson on 8/27/2020. (voc) (Entered: 08/27/2020)
