

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

ANTONIO AVILES,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D14-90

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed December 5, 2014

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Flagler County,
J. David Walsh, Judge.

John S. Zaleskie, Jr., Assistant Regional Counsel for The Office of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel, Tavares, and Paula C. Coffman, Assistant Criminal
Conflict Counsel for The Office of Criminal
Conflict & Civil Regional Counsel,
Casselberry, for Appellant.

Antonio Aviles, Perry, pro se.

Pamela Jo Bondi, Attorney General,
Tallahassee, and Allison L. Morris,
Assistant Attorney General, Daytona
Beach, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

We affirm this Anders<sup>1</sup> appeal in all respects but remand for correction of a scrivener's error in the written sentencing documents. The trial court orally pronounced a twenty-year mandatory sentence on counts I and II, pursuant to section 775.087(2)(a)2., Florida Statutes; however, the documents state that a ten-year minimum mandatory sentence was imposed.

---

<sup>1</sup> Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967).

AFFIRMED AND REMANDED.

TORPY, C.J., ORFINGER and LAWSON, JJ., concur.