

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

JOHN MOORE,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D19-3314

LISA MOORE N/K/A LISA COLEMAN ,

Appellee.

_____ /

Decision filed October 2, 2020

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Seminole County,
Michael J. Rudisill, Judge.

Cynthia M. Winter, and Eric Lee Bensen, of Greater Orlando Family Law, Winter
Park, for Appellant.

Andrew Joseph Chmelir, of Jacobson, Chmelir & Ferwerda, Winter Springs, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

AFFIRMED.

LAMBERT and HARRIS, JJ., concur.
COHEN, J., concurs specially with opinion.

COHEN, J., concurring specially.

The trial in this domestic relations case began on March 14, 2018, and concluded on October 11, 2018. A supplemental final judgment was not entered until October 10, 2019, a year to the day after the conclusion of the trial. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.215(f); Saboff v. Saboff, 275 So. 3d 712 (Fla. 5th DCA 2019).

This was not an overly complex case. The issues primarily dealt with competing requests for modification of alimony. The parties deserved a timelier ruling.