

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

JOHN M. BRACK,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D20-2595

RITA A. BRACK,

Appellee.

Opinion filed June 18, 2021

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Flagler County,
Christopher A. France , Judge.

Jill S. Barger, of Jill S. Barger, LLC,
Chester, Vermont, for Appellant.

Marc E. Dwyer, of Marc E. Dwyer,
P.A., Flagler Beach, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

We affirm the final judgment entered below in the civil action brought by the former wife, Rita Brack, against her former husband. On appeal, the former husband correctly observes that the final judgment includes an erroneous factual recitation regarding the number of improper Athene retirement fund withdrawals made by the former husband after entry of the final judgment of dissolution of marriage. Although we conclude that this error did not impact the trial court's ultimate decision in any way, we remand for the trial court to enter an amended final judgment correcting such error.

AFFIRMED; REMANDED for entry of amended final judgment.
