

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

JULY TERM 2003

JOANNA M. LOCKLEAR,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D03-14

UNEMPLOYMENT APPEALS COMMISSION,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed September 19, 2003

Administrative Appeal from the
Unemployment Appeals Commission.

Joanna M. Locklear, Georgetown, Pro Se.

John D. Maher, Unemployment Appeals Commission,
Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Joanna M. Locklear seeks review of an Unemployment Appeals Commission order denying her claim for unemployment compensation benefits. As is often the case, the record reveals a conflict in the evidence regarding the reason Ms. Locklear's employment with Marcus M. Cornelius, III & Associates, P.A., ended.

Our review of the record reveals that the Commission's determination that Ms. Locklear voluntarily left her employment, and is therefore not entitled to benefits is supported by competent, substantial evidence. De Groot v. Sheffield, 95 So. 2d 912 (Fla. 1957). Accordingly, the Commission's order is affirmed.

AFFIRMED.

THOMPSON, PLEUS and ORFINGER, JJ., concur.
