

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT
JANUARY TERM 2005

DORIS KIMRAJ,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D04-1737

UNEMPLOYMENT APPEALS COMMISSION,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed March 4, 2005

Administrative Appeal from the Unemployment Appeals Commission.

Doris Kimraj, Gotha, pro se.

John D. Maher, Deputy General Counsel,
Unemployment Appeals Commission,
Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Doris Kimraj appeals an order of the Unemployment Appeals Commission denying her eligibility for benefits. Based on the limited record before us, we agree that Kimraj was properly disqualified from receiving benefits chargeable to Dillard's, her short-term, part-time employer. However, Kimraj was a full-time employee of the Merristar Hotel for thirteen years, until she was furloughed and applied for unemployment compensation benefits two days later. It appears that the Commission failed to determine her eligibility for benefits due to her separation of her employment at the Merristar Hotel.

Accordingly, we affirm the denial of benefits chargeable to Dillard's, but remand this matter for further consideration of Kimraj's eligibility for benefits based on her employment with the Merristar Hotel.

AFFIRMED IN PART and REMANDED.

PALMER, ORFINGER and MONACO, JJ., concur.
