

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

JANUARY TERM 2008

VERNON JEROME THOMPSON,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D07-1150

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL REGULATION,

Appellee.

Opinion filed June 20, 2008

Administrative Appeal from the Construction Industry Licensing Board.

Vernon J. Thompson, Apopka, Pro Se.

Jennifer A. Tschetter and Patricia Nelson,
Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Vernon J. Thompson appeals a final order of the Construction Industry Licensing Board revoking his general contractor's license. Having carefully reviewed the record, we affirm.

The record indicates that Mr. Thompson received appropriate notice of the administrative complaint filed against him by the Department of Business and Professional Regulation and failed to request a formal hearing. Further, Mr. Thompson failed to attend the informal hearing despite receiving short, but adequate notice.

Section 120.57(2), Florida Statutes (2007), requires reasonable notice of an agency's intention to conduct an informal hearing. Only formal hearings require no less than fourteen days notice. See § 120.569(1) & (2)(b), Fla. Stat. (2007).

AFFIRMED.
