

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

JANUARY TERM 2010

A.L.M., A CHILD,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D09-1516

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed June 4, 2010

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Orange County,
Anthony H. Johnson, Judge.

James S. Purdy, Public Defender, and Kathryn Rollison Radtke, Assistant Public
Defender, Daytona Beach, for Appellant.

Bill McCollum, Attorney General,
Tallahassee, and Anthony J. Golden,
Assistant Attorney General, Daytona
Beach, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

A.L.M. was adjudicated guilty, after an adjudicatory hearing, of five separate offenses. He was committed to a Level 8 program until his 19th birthday and was further assessed certain court costs and a $300 public defender's fee. On appeal, A.L.M. correctly contends that the imposition of the public defender's fee was improper because he was not given notice of his right to contest the amount of the fee. J.F. v. State, 961 So. 2d 991 (Fla. 5th DCA 2007). On remand, the fee obligation may be re-imposed, provided the trial court complies with the provisions of Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure 3.720(d). J.F.

A.L.M.'s additional argument that a public defender's lien may not be imposed against a juvenile offender's indigent parent is without merit. See § 938.29(2)(a), Fla. Stat. (2009).

AFFIRMED in part; REVERSED in part; REMANDED.
