

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

DAVID ALEXANDER MASTERS, III,

Appellant,

v.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

CASE NO. 1D04-2042

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed June 23, 2005.

An appeal from Circuit Court for Okaloosa County.
G. Robert Barron, Judge.

Nancy A. Daniels, Public Defender, and David P. Gauldin, Assistant Public Defender, Tallahassee, for Appellant.

Charlie Crist, Attorney General, Tracy Lee Cooper and Trisha Meggs Pate, Assistant
Attorneys General, Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

The appellant challenges the order of revocation of probation, the judgment, and the sentences entered and imposed after the trial court found that the appellant had committed various violations of probation. We affirm the order, judgment and sentences, except as to an error which appears on page 6 of the appellant's written sentence.

In imposing sentence, the trial court orally announced that the appellant's sentences in the present case would run concurrently with state prison sentences the appellant was already serving. As the appellee concedes, the written sentence incorrectly indicates that the state prison sentences the appellant was already serving had been imposed in Manatee County. We therefore strike the reference to Manatee County from page 6 of the appellant's written sentence, so that the pertinent remaining language appearing there will indicate that the appellant's sentences in the present case will run concurrently with one another, and that the sentences in the present case will also run concurrently with the state prison sentences the appellant was already serving when the judgment and sentences were entered and imposed in the present case.

Accordingly, the order of revocation of probation, the judgment, and the sentences are affirmed, but the reference to Manatee County is stricken from the written sentence.
