

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

DAVID NORMAN,

Petitioner,

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED.

v.

CASE NO. 1D06-4112

FLORIDA PAROLE COMMISSION,

Respondent.

_____ /

Opinion filed May 21, 2007.

Petition for Writ of Certiorari - original jurisdiction

David Norman, pro se, Petitioner.

Bradley R. Bischoff, Assistant General Counsel, Florida Parole Commission, Tallahassee, Attorneys for Respondent.

PER CURIAM.

Petitioner seeks a writ of certiorari overturning the circuit court's denial of a petition for writ of mandamus and the imposition of a lien on his prisoner account. We find his argument is without merit and deny the petition without comment. We also deny his request to quash the order of indigency, as it was not properly presented below.

There is nothing in the record to indicate that Petitioner requested relief from the lower court's imposition of a lien on his prisoner account. "In order to be preserved for further review by a higher court, an issue must be presented to the lower court and the specific legal argument or ground . . . must be part of that presentation." Tillman v. State, 471 So. 2d 32, 35 (Fla. 1985). We have recently held that a proper motion is required in the lower court before we will consider an argument regarding whether a lien on a prisoner trust account was erroneously imposed. See Kemp v. McDonough, 32 Fla. L. Weekly D1126 (Fla. 1st DCA Apr. 30, 2007).

PETITION DENIED.
