

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

RAY JAMES,

Petitioner,

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

v.

CASE NO. 1D10-5607

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF
CORRECTIONS,

Respondent.

_____ /

Opinion filed June 30, 2011.

Petition for Writ of Prohibition -- Original Jurisdiction.

Ray James, pro se, Petitioner.

No appearance for Respondent.

PER CURIAM.

The petition for writ of prohibition is DENIED on the merits. See Dickinson v. Fla. Nat'l Org. for Women, 763 So. 2d 1245, 1247 (Fla. 4th DCA 2000) (stating that in “the case of state agencies, the county of ‘residence’ is where the agency’s headquarters are located”); Pettway v. State, 776 So. 2d 930 (Fla. 2000) (holding that when a party has been banned from appearing pro se in a particular tribunal, he or she cannot go to another tribunal to avoid the consequences of the sanction).
