

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

FRANKLIN DILLION
WARFIELD, JR.,

Appellant,

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

v.

CASE NO. 1D12-1455

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

Opinion filed April 3, 2013.

An appeal from the Circuit Court for Escambia County.
J. Scott Duncan, Judge.

Ronald W. Johnson of Ronald W. Johnson, P.A., Pensacola, for Appellant.

Pamela Jo Bondi, Attorney General, Samuel A. Perrone, Assistant Attorney
General, Virginia Harris, Assistant Attorney General, and Jennifer J. Moore, Assistant Attorney General, Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

AFFIRMED. See State v. Brunson, 369 So. 2d 945, 947 (Fla. 1979) (“We specifically hold that a felon under eighteen years of age who is sentenced to probation, but who subsequently violates that probation in a manner which justifies its revocation, may be sentenced without benefit of a presentence investigation. We further hold that once a juvenile felon has demonstrated his inability to comply with the conditions of his probation and has consequently had it revoked, a presentence investigation is not required before sentencing on any subsequent felonies he may commit.”).
