

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

CHASE CARMEN HUNTER ,

Petitioner,

v.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

CASE NO. 1D12-5889

DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES,

Respondent.

_____ /

Opinion filed May 6, 2013.

Petition for Writ of Certiorari – Original Jurisdiction.

Chase Carmen Hunter, pro se, Petitioner.

David J. Busch, Tallahassee, for Respondent.

PER CURIAM.

The petitioner seeks review of an Emergency Suspension Order (ESO) suspending her non-resident insurance license. We find that the ESO fails to meet the exacting standards of section 120.60(6), Florida Statutes, because it does not contain particularized facts demonstrating an immediate danger to the public health, safety, or welfare. See Kaplan v. Dep't of Health, 45 So. 3d 19 (Fla. 1st DCA 2010); Bio-Med Plus, Inc. v. Dep't of Health, 915 So. 2d 669 (Fla. 1st DCA 2005). We GRANT the petition and QUASH the ESO to the extent that it has not been mooted by the underlying administrative proceedings.

PADOVANO, ROBERTS, and CLARK, JJ., CONCUR.