

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

DONNA I. NEHRICH,

Appellant,

v.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

CASE NO. 1D13-2402

REEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE
APPEALS COMMISSION and
AT&T Mobility Services, LLC,

Appellees.

Opinion filed November 26, 2013.

An appeal from an order of the Reemployment Assistance Appeals Commission.
Thomas D. Epsky, Member.

Donna I. Nehrich, pro se, for Appellant.

Norman A. Blessing, General Counsel, and Louis A. Gutierrez, Assistant General
Counsel, Reemployment Assistance Appeals Commission, Tallahassee, for Appellees.

PER CURIAM.

We treat the Reemployment Assistance Appeals Commission motion to relinquish jurisdiction as a concession that procedural error occurred on account of the appeals referee's failure to secure a waiver of appellant's right to proper notice of the hearing before the referee. See Fla. Admin. Code R. 73B-20.015. Accordingly, we reverse the Commission's order affirming the appeals referee's determination, and consistent with section 120.68(7)(c), Florida Statutes (2013), remand this matter to the Commission for further proceedings. Appellant's "Motion to Reverse Decision," to the extent it requests an order directing the award of unemployment compensation benefits without further proceedings, is denied.
