

FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
STATE OF FLORIDA

No. 1D19-2495

SANDRA M. NORTHCUTT,

Petitioner,

v.

DEANDAR JEMAR TURNER, an individual, BP EXPRESS, LLC
f/k/a BP Express, Inc. a foreign limited liability company,

Respondents.

Petition for Writ of Certiorari—Original Jurisdiction.

June 12, 2020

PER CURIAM.

Sandra M. Northcutt files a petition for certiorari requesting we quash the circuit court's order allowing opposing counsel to have access and review certain personal medical records prior to the judge making an independent in camera determination of whether the records should be produced despite petitioner's objection based on a constitutional right to privacy. Petitioner was entitled to the appropriate in camera review. Zarzaur v. Zarzaur, 213 So. 3d 1115 (Fla. 1st DCA 2017); McEnany v. Ryan, 44 So. 3d 245 (Fla. 4th DCA 2010). Such independent review must occur prior to any disclosure to opposing counsel. Zarzaur at 1120.

We, therefore, grant the petition and quash the trial court's order.

WOLF and WINOKUR, JJ., and COLAW, JAMES M., ASSOCIATE JUDGE, concur.

Not final until disposition of any timely and authorized motion under Fla. R. App. P. 9.330 or 9.331.

Philip Kinney of Kinney & Moore, PL, Jacksonville, for Petitioner.

Cristine Russell and Jason Holbrook of Rogers Towers, P.A., Jacksonville, for Respondents.
