

FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
STATE OF FLORIDA

No. 1D19-4100

KENNETH CHAMBERS,

Appellant,

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

On appeal from the Circuit Court for Leon County.
Robert E. Long, Jr., Judge.

May 29, 2020

PER CURIAM.

Upon review pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S. Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), we find no reversible error and affirm Appellant’s judgment and sentence. We write only to correct a scrivener’s error in the judgment. See Ashley v. State, 850 So.2d 1265, 1268 n.3 (Fla. 2003) (defining a scrivener’s error as a written clerical error that is not “the result of a judicial determination or error”). Appellant’s written judgment reflects that leaving the scene of a crash involving serious bodily injury is a third-degree felony. However, leaving the scene of a crash involving serious bodily injury is a second-degree felony. §§ 316.027(2)(b), Fla. Stat. (2017). On remand, the trial court shall correct the judgment to reflect Appellant’s conviction of a second-degree felony.

AFFIRMED and REMANDED for correction of a scrivener's error.

ROBERTS, OSTERHAUS, and M.K. THOMAS, JJ., concur.

Not final until disposition of any timely and authorized motion under Fla. R. App. P. 9.330 or 9.331.

Andy Thomas, Public Defender; Megan Long and Lori A. Willner, Assistant Public Defenders, Tallahassee, for Appellant.

Ashley Moody, Attorney General, Tallahassee, for Appellee.
