

FIRST DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
STATE OF FLORIDA

No. 1D19-1707

BARRETT REGISTER,

Appellant,

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

On appeal from the Circuit Court for Hamilton County.
Melissa G. Olin, Judge.

January 21, 2021

PER CURIAM.

We affirm the Appellant's judgment and sentence, but remand for correction of scrivener's errors contained in the written judgment and sentence. The written order erroneously includes the offense of misdemeanor possession of cannabis and imposes a sentence of 48-months' incarceration for this offense. Appellant had previously completed his sentence for this offense, which was not before the trial court during the proceedings on revocation of probation. Accordingly, we affirm Appellant's judgment and sentence in all respects, but remand for correction of the scrivener's errors. The Appellant need not be present for the correction of the errors.

AFFIRMED and REMANDED with instructions.

ROBERTS, OSTERHAUS, and JAY, JJ., concur.

Not final until disposition of any timely and authorized motion under Fla. R. App. P. 9.330 or 9.331.

Baya Harrison, III, Monticello, for Appellant; Barrett Register, pro se.

Ashley Moody, Attorney General, Tallahassee, for Appellee.
