Case No. 2D15-79

Opinion filed December 30, 2015.

Appeal from the Circuit Court for Pasco
County; Pat Siracusa, Judge.

Howard L. Dimmig, II, Public Defender, and Brooke Elvington, Assistant Public
Defender, Bartow, for Appellant.

Pamela Jo Bondi, Attorney General,
Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

In this Anders<sup>1</sup> appeal, Chantel Coleman appeals her convictions and sentences in three cases. We affirm without prejudice to any right Coleman may have to file a postconviction motion raising the claims she raised in her motion to withdraw plea filed after this appeal was initiated. The trial court properly dismissed the motion because this appeal divested the trial court of jurisdiction to consider the motion. See Sharp v. State, 884 So. 2d 510, 512 (Fla. 2d DCA 2004); Wilson v. State, 814 So. 2d 1203, 1204 (Fla. 2d DCA 2002).

We remand for correction of a scrivener's error on the written judgment in circuit court case number 14-5604. The judgment lists the offense as "GRAND THEFT 3F" and correctly cites section 812.014(2)(c)(1), but it incorrectly lists the degree as a "First Degree Felony." Coleman was charged with third-degree grand theft in violation of section 812.014(2)(c)(1), Florida Statutes (2014), which "is grand theft of the third degree and a felony of the third degree." Accordingly, the judgment in circuit court case number 14-5604 should be amended to reflect that the offense of grand theft is a third-degree felony.

Affirmed; remanded.
