Opinion filed November 19, 2003.

Appeal from the Circuit Court for Manatee County; Paul E. Logan, Judge.

James Marion Moorman, Public
Defender, and Timothy J. Ferreri,
Assistant Public Defender, Bartow, for Appellant.

Charles J. Crist, Jr., Attorney General,
Tallahassee, and William I. Munsey, Jr.,
Assistant Attorney General, Tampa, for Appellee.

ALTENBERND, Chief Judge.

G.A. was adjudicated delinquent for trespass on school grounds pursuant to section 810.097(1), Florida Statutes (2002). This crime, which applies to a person who is on school grounds without legitimate business, is a second-degree misdemeanor. We affirm the order adjudicating G.A. delinquent but remand for the circuit court to correct a scrivener's error in G.A.'s disposition order. The order erroneously indicates that this crime was a first-degree misdemeanor, an error that affects the length of the disposition.

Affirmed; remanded to correct scrivener's error.
